On the Cover:

This year Clemson will honor its Centennial Team members on the cover of each program. This week we honor five Tiger greats, all from the state of Georgia. Chris Gardocki is the greatest all-around kicker in Clemson history, as he is the only Tiger to rank in the top five in the nation in punting and placekicking in the same season. Jeff Bryant was an All-America defensive lineman on the National Championship team. Terry Allen led the ACC in rushing in 1987 and still ranks second in Clemson history in career rushing, even though he played just three seasons. Stacy Long was a two-time All-America guard and finalist for the Outland Trophy and Harold Olson was one of Clemson's top linemen of the 1960s who went on to a pro career.

TODAY'S GAME

by Tim Bourret

Clemson is finally back in Death Valley. It is fitting that today is Homecoming, because it seems Clemson has been on the road forever. In fact, of the last eight Clemson games, only two have been played in Death Valley. After last year, when the Carolina Panthers played 10 games at Clemson, it really seems Death Valley has been unoccupied this fall.

But, Clemson fans will have the chance to change all that today and for the rest of the season. For the first time in Clemson history, the Tigers will play four of their last five games at home, including three in the month of November. Playing well in late October and November has been a key in recent Clemson seasons and under Head Coach Tommy West. In 1994, West's first year, Clemson won three of its last four. Last year the Tigers won their last five regular season games. Clemson is 15-4 in the month of November in the decade of the 1990s.

Clemson-Tech Series Notes

Georgia Tech has a 39-19-2 lead in the series with Clemson dating back to a 23-0 Clemson win in Augusta, GA in 1898. In fact Clemson won the first four games of the series, including games in 1902 and 1903 when John Heisman was at the helm. Clemson defeated Georgia Tech in Atlanta 73-0 in 1903 with Heisman as head coach. Heisman then moved to Georgia Tech and defeated Clemson two years later (1905) by a 17-10 score.

The Tigers have a 6-2 advantage in games at Clemson, but Georgia Tech leads 37-10-2 in games played in Atlanta. Clemson traveled to Atlanta for its semi-annual game with Georgia Tech every meeting between 1907 and 1974. Clemson's only wins in those 36 meetings came in 1907, 1936, 1945 and 1969. The later was Frank Howard's final season as head coach.

The first time Georgia Tech played in Clemson's stadium was 1974, a 21-17 Clemson victory. Clemson has an 8-5 advantage in the series, regardless of site, since Georgia Tech joined the ACC in 1983.

Clemson won last year 24-3 in Atlanta, but the two teams have played many close games since Tech joined the league. In 1994 Clemson won 20-10, the last time the two teams met in Death Valley. Clemson also won 16-13 in 1993, but Tech defeated the Tigers 20-16 in 1992. Clemson won 9-7 in 1991 and Tech downed Clemson 21-19 in 1990, the Yellow Jackets' national championship season. Both teams finished that 1990 season ranked in the top 10 in the nation. Thus, five of the last six meetings between the teams have been decided by 10 points or less.

One of the highlights for Clemson in the series has been rushing defense. In 1994 C.J. Williams broke a streak of 18 years without a Tech back gaining 100 yards against Clemson when he had 117 in 25 attempts. Last year, Williams was held to 13 rushes for 31 yards. Georgia Tech has had just six 100-yard rushing games against Clemson in its history.

Clemson Downed Tech Last Year

"The victory at Georgia Tech might have been our best all-around game last year," said Head Coach Tommy West. "We played well on both sides of the ball." Clemson defeated Tech 24-3 in a pivotal game for the then 4-3 Tigers. Clemson won its last five games last year and the victory at Georgia Tech was a key.

Georgia Tech opened the scoring on its Homecoming with a 46-yard first-quarter field goal from Dave Frakes. The Clemson offense responded. The Tigers took the ensuing kickoff and marched 65 yards in 14 plays on a drive that culminated in a three-yard touchdown run by Emory Smith. The drive featured three third-down pass conversions, including a 16-yard Nealon Greene to Tony Horne pass down to the Tech three following a holding penalty.

The Tigers' next drive began at their own 28 following a missed Tech field goal. After three consecutive running plays, Nealon Greene connected with Antwuan Wyatt on a play-action pass for a 61 yard touchdown.

The next time that Clemson's offense touched the ball, it went 56 yards in nine plays for a third touchdown. Nealon Greene again connected with Antwuan Wyatt for a 12-yard touchdown, and the Tigers found themselves in control with a 21-3 halftime lead.

The Tigers' passed the ball only three times in the second half while controlling the clock for 20:14. Emory Smith finished with 100 yards rushing on 26 carries while his brother, NFL star Emmitt Smith, watched from the sidelines. Nealon Greene finished 10 of 13 passing for 167 yards and two touchdowns, both to Antwuan Wyatt.

The Clemson defense also rose to the occasion on this day. The Yellow Jackets, who came into the day averaging 236.6 yards rushing were limited to 76 yards on 30 attempts. The Tiger defense, led by Anthony Simmons with 13 tackles, held C.J. Williams to 31 yards rushing. This mark was over 90 yards below his average coming into the game. Donnie Davis, who was sacked four times on the afternoon, completed only 13 of 32 passes for 174 yards and one interception.

Smith Had Career Day Last Year

Clemson fullback Emory Smith has had three 100-yard rushing games in his career and one of them took place last year at Georgia Tech. The Tiger senior had a career high 26 carries for 100 yards and one touchdown in leading the Clemson ground attack in the 24-3 Tiger victory. Smith played all 74 plays in the contest.

Smith's other 100-yard rushing days took place in 1993 against Virginia (18-113) and at South Carolina in 1995 when he bulled his way for 101 yards in just 12 carries. He also scored two touchdowns in that game.

Emory Smith scored his second touchdown of the season at Missouri and now has 22 touchdowns, including 21 rushing, for his career. Smith now ranks tied for 11th in Clemson history in total touchdowns with his 22, the same number accumulated by Terrence

Flagler and Steve Fuller. Smith also has 132 career points, 19th best in Clemson history. For his career Smith has 1373 career rushing yards, 28th best in Clemson history.

Georgia Tech Update

Georgia Tech is coming off of its biggest win since 1990, a 13-7 victory over a 12th-ranked Virginia team on October 5. The Yellow Jackets were off last week, giving them an extra week to enjoy their highest ranked victory since November 3, 1990 when they upset a number-one ranked Virginia team in Charlottesville, 41-38. The victory two weeks ago over Virginia was the highest ranked team Tech has beaten at Bobby Dodd Stadium since 1988 when they shutout an eighth ranked South Carolina team, 34-0.

The special teams have been outstanding for Georgia Tech of late. Placekicker Dave Frakes earned the AT&T Long Distance Award for his 53-yard field goal against Virginia, the longest in the nation that week. His field goal was just two yards shy of the school record. Punter Rodney Williams was named Tech's MVP against Virginia. He punted nine times for a 40-yard average, but more importantly had six punts downed inside the 20, including a 77-yard punt that was killed at the Virginia four.

C.J. Williams, who had 117 yards rushing against Clemson in Death Valley two years ago, is one of the top offensive guns for Georgia Tech this year. The former Tech hoopster averages 81.8 yards rushing per game, fifth best in the conference. Joe Hamilton has been outstanding under center for Tech, hitting 57 of 89 passes for 648 yards. He has a 64 percent completion rate, best in the ACC.

Nathan Perryman is regarded as the top all-around defender for Coach George O'Leary's team. Perryman, a native of Columbia, SC, had one of the biggest plays of his career when he intercepted a pass at the Tech nine-yard line in the Virginia game's final minute. He also had seven punt returns for 69 yards against All-ACC punter Will Brice. Keith Brookings and Ron Rogers are outstanding linebackers in Georgia Tech's defensive set. They rank, second and third in the ACC in tackles, respectively, behind Clemson's Anthony Simmons.

Greene Outstanding Against Tech

Nealon Greene has a 2-0 record as a starting quarterback against Georgia Tech in his career. He has had a lot to do with Clemson's 2-0 record the last two years. In 1994 he completed 7-13 passes for 81 yards and rushed for a career high 111 yards and two touchdowns. Last year he completed 10-13 passes for 167 yards and two scores and the 235.6 efficiency rating is second best in his career.

Overall, Greene has 375 yards of total offense in two games against Tech. He has rushed for 127 yards in 26 attempts and has two scores, and completed 17-26 passes for 248 yards and two scores.

Greene had been on a hot streak of late and has now completed 54 percent of his passes for 828 yards. His 7.7 yards per attempt is second only to Thad Busby of Florida State. Last week he completed 14-23 passes for 231 yards, the second highest total of his career. Over the last four games, Greene has hit 45 of his last 72 passes for 660 yards and three touchdowns, a 63 percent completion rate for that period of time.

Greene now has 3605 career yards of total offense and is just the 10th player in Clemson history to go over the 3,000-yard mark. The only other Clemson quarterback in the 1990s to go over 3000 yards is DeChane Cameron. Greene went over 200 career completions with the 15 at Florida State. He went over the 2500-yard passing mark in the Wake Forest game and is now seventh in Clemson history in that category. His highest ranking is in completion percentage, where he stands third with a .556 figure.

Greene had his first 200-yard total offense game of the season against Missouri, and now has seven for his career. Clemson has a 5-2 record when Greene has a 200-yard total offense game.

Clemson Homecoming History

Clemson and Georgia Tech meet today on Clemson's Homecoming at Death Valley. The Tigers have been nothing short of sensational in homecoming games over the years, especially since 1970. The Tigers have lost a homecoming game just once since 1970, but it was to today's opponent, Georgia Tech, in 1989. The Yellow Jackets, who entered the game with a 1-3 record, upset the 14th ranked Tigers, 30-14. It was a coming out party for Georgia Tech freshman quarterback Shawn Jones, who would lead Tech to the National Championship the following season.

Clemson has a 52-17-3 overall Homecoming record dating back to 1992 when Centre defeated Clemson 21-0. The Tigers are 23-1-2 on homecoming since 1970. The ties came in 1976 (to Duke, 18-18) and to Virginia (20-20 in 1991).

coming games home and away of late. Over the last two years Clemson has been the homecoming opponent on the road and won all three, including last week's game at Duke. Clemson defeated Maryland, 17-0 and Georgia Tech, 24-3 in homecoming games last year.

Padgett Contributes Field Goals

Freshman placekicker Matt Padgett made his debut at Florida State and scored Clemson's only points of the contest on a 29-yard field goal. He continued his contribution against Duke when he kicked two field goals in three attempts. He converted field goals of 44 and 35 yards and the two field goals were the margin of victory in the 13-6 Clemson victory. Padgett did not play in any of the first four games and was the third placekicker used by Tommy West this year. Michael Brice appeared in each of the first five games and David Richardson booted two field goals against Furman, but has not attempted a field goal since.

Padgett had competed previously for Clemson, but on the baseball diamond. He was a reserve outfielder and third baseman last year on Clemson's College World Series baseball team and hit .224 with one home run, six doubles, two triples and 21 RBIs. He started 22 games and appeared in 45 of the 68 Clemson games.

Padgett hit a triple in his first career at bat in baseball against Maine and had his first career home run the next day when he was 2-5 against the Black Bears. He was 11 for his last 28 to close the season, a .393 average. The native of Newberry, SC was a football and baseball standout at Lexington High School. He was MVP of the North-South Football game and was an all-state selection in both sports. He hit .480 in 1995 with five home runs for Lexington High.

Wide Receivers Catching Passes

Clemson completed 18 passes as a team at Florida State and 16 of the catches were made by wide receivers. It was the most pass completions by the Tigers in a game since last year's Virginia game when the Tigers completed 19 passes as a team. It was the most catches by Clemson wide receivers since the 1994 N.C. State game when Tiger wide outs also caught 16 passes.

Clemson receivers are led by Tony Horne, who had three receptions for 129 yards at Duke, the first 100-yard receiving game for a Tiger this year. He has 3.8 receptions per game to lead the team. That total included an 80-yard touchdown reception from Nealon Greene, which tied for the fifth longest touchdown reception in Clemson history. Horne, who caught a career high eight passes for 90 yards at Florida State, now has 15 catches for 257 yards, a 17.1 average.

Joe Woods, who caught four for 54 yards at Florida State, actually has the most catches and reception yards on the team with 16 for 263 yards. Kenya Crooks has 14 receptions for 234 yards and has had at least one reception in every game this year. Clemson has 70 total pass completions this year and 57 have gone to wide receivers.

BRETT WILLIAMS

by Brian Hennessy

Many prospective college students take months to decide where they will attend college. For Brett Williams, one step on campus was all that he needed.

Williams, a 6-4, 265-pound defensive lineman from Albany, GA, was a SuperPrep and USA Today All-American, and even averaged a double-double (points and rebounds) on the basketball team at Dougherty High School. He chose to don the orange and white during a visit with two of his high school teammates that were being recruited by the Tigers. Williams, who was a junior in high school at the time, was being recruited by almost every southeastern school.

"Clemson was the first school I visited during my recruiting process," Williams says. "We ate at the Tiger Den in Death Valley and I fell in love with Clemson right then. Right after that trip I knew I would end up at Clemson."

The fifth-year graduate student describes his hometown, Albany, like, "Greenville (SC) with a lot of rural areas surrounding the city." Since there are no large cities near Williams' hometown, he feels right at home in Clemson. Williams also speaks of love and support that he has received back home from his parents, Sandra and Harris. "My parents have done too much for me to let them down. They have always been there for me."

Williams also has a brother playing collegiate football at Texas Christian and is still very close with him. Lance, surprisingly a fullback of all positions, is a red-shirt freshman for the Horned Frogs. "One of the things I make sure I do every week is talk to Lance on the phone," Williams states. With Brett's improvement over the past four seasons, don't be surprised to see Lance follow suit before too long.

When Williams came to Clemson in 1992 he was the size of a freshman running back, as he weighed only 198 pounds, very small for an outside linebacker. He put on 30 pounds in the first two months during his red-shirt season. Although his stature was something that needed improvement, he showed promise in the 1993 spring drills as he amassed four tackles-for-loss and had 16 tackles in scrimmages.

Williams burst onto the scene in the 1993 season as he started his first game in a Tiger uniform against UNLV. He played in every game and averaged 28 plays per game. His best game was against East Tennessee State, when he recorded three tackles-for-loss and two sacks in only 21 plays. For his efforts, he was named the Exxon Tiger-of-the-Game. Williams also led all non-starters in tackles-for-loss in 1993 with six.

Williams again showed in 1994 why he was a high school All-American when he finished third on the team in tackles-for-loss with nine. He also finished third on the team in sacks, behind current Tampa Bay Buccaneers Darnell Stephens and Wardell Rouse, with four. His totals are further enhanced by the fact that he was only in for 294 snaps for the season. He led the team in tackles for loss per play, meaning he was a big play performer in limited action. His best game came against his home-state team in the Georgia Bulldogs. In his return to Georgia, he posted six tackles, three tackles-for-loss, and a half-sack.

In 1995, Williams became a starter on the defensive line, as he started seven games. Although he was hampered early in the season with a separated shoulder and a knee injury, he totaled 27 tackles on the season, five of which were behind the line of scrimmage. His best game of the season came against Virginia, as he had five tackles and two tackles-for-loss. Besides the Western Carolina game, where he was only in for two snaps due to injury, he had at least one tackle in each of the last 11 games on a defense that ranked in the top 20 in the nation in rushing and scoring defense.

The one-time sub-200 pound lineman has emerged in 1996 as a force on the Tiger defensive line. Through five games, he had 22 tackles and four tackles-for-loss, while starting all five games. Against Florida State he had a career-high tying six tackles and one tackle-for-loss against a potent Seminole offense.

"Brett Williams has been one of our most consistent players upfront," said Head Coach Tommy West. "He is good against the run and has shown an ability to rush the passer since he first came to Clemson. He is a player who gets a lot out of his ability and has shown a good work ethic all year. He was limited by injury last year, but obviously is dedicated to having a solid last season."

Williams career totals rank among the best for Clemson defensive linemen. He leads all current Tigers in tackles-for-loss (24), quarterback pressures (21), and games played (41). His 24 career tackles-for-loss places him 15th on the all-time Clemson list. He has just four fewer than Clemson Hall of Famer and Centennial Team member Jeff Bryant accumulated in his four years with the Tigers.

While Williams' on-the-field accomplishments have been well recognized, his off-the field accomplishments are outstanding as well. Instead of taking the easy road in his final undergraduate semester, he hit the books hard and came away with a 3.43 GPA, which is tribute to his painstaking work and dedication.

Williams has already received his degree in textile management and did so in four years, crediting summer school for graduating on-time. If that was not enough, Williams is currently enrolled in graduate school and finds subtle differences.

"It's a change because there is much more work involved out of class instead of going to class all the time," Williams says. "But I still felt no different the day I graduated in August." That coming from a student-athlete who does not let his accomplishments stand in the way of his goals and aspirations down the road.

He believed Vickery Hall, Clemson's student-athlete enrichment center, has been a key to his success. "Vickery has been a tremendous asset. Even when I was sure about a subject, I still went to them just to learn more about the subject. I am thankful they pushed me in my early years at Clemson. I believe that all of us need someone to push us in life."

Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Gary Wade has seen the hundreds of hours that Williams has sacrificed to become an NFL prospect. "No one works harder in the weight room than Brett Williams," Coach Wade emphatically states. "He has never missed a workout in his five seasons at Clemson. The quality that sets him apart is his drive to always better himself. Every workout is the same. He is consistent and business-like. I can always count on Brett to show his leadership to the younger players in the weight room."

Among his workout regimentations is kick-boxing, certainly an unusual hobby for a defensive lineman or any football player for that matter. "Whenever I get a chance, I like to kick-box. At first, I started off by taekwondo-sparring and it grew into kick-boxing. With school and football, I really don't have time for anything else." Obviously, this is a hobby that has its advantages when it comes to football agility.

While Williams dreams about a career in professional football, he realizes that his education will remain with him when his playing days are over. "My main goal right now is to play professional football," Williams states. "But I have to be realistic about my future. Some friends and I have also discussed starting our own textile company. We have already written small business plans for our company.

"When I arrived at Clemson four years ago, I had a hard time setting goals. I did not have a choice but to become a more mature person. Now that I have a degree and know what I can accomplish, I can set more realistic goals for myself."

To kids, Williams gives this advice. "The most important thing is who a person 'hangs' with. If a person surrounds himself or herself with people who try to be successful, he or she will eventually be successful. Even if a person doesn't have positive intentions, just being around other people with positive intentions will allow him or her to be successful."

Even though Williams' time is almost done at Clemson, he knows that the sacrifices he has made will pay off in the end. From a student-athlete who was destined to wear the orange and white, to one who graduated on-time, to one who ranks amongst Clemson's best defensive lineman, to one that will attain a successful professional career, this is a man who knows where he is going.

 ARAMARK

DR. DENO CURRIS

Midway through his first year as president of Clemson University, Constantine W. "Deno" Curris addressed a faculty meeting by saying that he truly felt like a freshman at times—"excited to be here, but sometimes not sure exactly where I am." But by year's end, Curris had earned the ultimate compliment when an alumnus said,

"When I talk to him about Clemson, I feel like I'm the newcomer."

Curris hit the ground running when he became Clemson's 13th president on May 22, 1995. Among his early accomplishments were fine-tuning the academic reorganization of 1994 by adding a fifth college, establishing benchmark institutions to give students, parents and the public a way to measure Clemson, and setting out to fill key appointments.

Other high priorities included acquainting himself with the history and culture of Clemson, advocating Clemson's legislative goals in Columbia, and meeting members of the "Clemson Family" throughout the state and nation.

He also assumed a national leadership role of his own, being named to the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges, and becoming Chairman of the Board of Directors of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

Before coming to Clemson, Curris served as president of the University of Northern Iowa for 11 years and as president of Murray State University in Kentucky for 10 years before that. His presidencies at both universities were periods of growth and advancement, and he sees Clemson as another institution well-positioned to move ahead.

"Clemson has effected significant organizational and program changes to position the university and its students for the 21st century. Our task in the years ahead is to use this foundation and to build Clemson into a strong university with national stature and visibility," he said.

To help build Clemson's reputation and stature, Curris outlined three goals for the coming year.

First, in order to improve the educational program, Curris established a committee to define what makes the Clemson experience unique.

"I believe this definition is a necessary first step in building Clemson's reputation for the quality of our education programs and the capabilities of our graduates.

Second, he has established a goal of $50 million annually in competitively awarded federal research funding—which would be roughly a 30 percent increase.

The third major goal is recruiting the university's future—the brightest young faculty, the most promising professional staff, the best undergraduate and graduate students.

Meeting challenging goals is a Curris trademark. At Murray State, he oversaw extensive campus renovations and improvements, including a student center which was later named for him. At UNI, he led the school in raising admissions standards and implementing a more rigorous comprehensive general education program. UNI gained national recognition in many programs during the period and was cited in 1993 as one of the best educational values among public universities by U.S. News & World Report.

Curris received a bachelor's degree, magna cum laude, in political science from the University of Kentucky, a master's in political science and public administration from the University of Illinois, and his doctorate in higher education from the University of Kentucky.

When his schedule permits, Curris enjoys gardening, fishing and reading. He is married to Jo Hern Curris, a tax attorney and author.

TOMMY WEST

Tommy West entered his second year at the helm of the Clemson program with success on his mind, and that is what he achieved. He guided the 1995 Tigers to an 8-4 record, its best ACC ranking in four years, and a selection to a January 1 Bowl game.

For the second straight year, the Tigers showed marked improvement as the season progressed and the young team won its last five games of the regular season, four by at least 17 points. The run of success at the end of the season had the Tigers in the top 25 of every poll. West's Tigers were picked fifth in the ACC preseason poll, but, thanks to the third best offense in Clemson history and a defense that ranked 10th in the nation in scoring, Clemson finished third in the ACC standings with a 6-2 record, its best league finish since the Tigers won the ACC title in 1991.

The 1995 campaign was one in which Clemson excelled in every area. The Tigers ranked fourth in the country in rushing, yet also led the ACC in yards per pass attempt. Defensively, Clemson rated in the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, passing efficiency defense and turnover margin. In terms of special teams, Clemson was the only school in the nation to have an individual ranked in the top 25 in punting, placekicking, punt returns and kickoff returns.

In his first full season, West guided the Tigers to a 5-6 record, and it was a season that showed week-by-week improvement. The '94 club, which featured the youngest Clemson offensive unit in 50 years, finished with a number-one ranking in turnover margin, a landmark ranking in Clemson football history. The team lost just two fumbles, fewest in NCAA history over the course of a season. The Tigers were ranked as high as 21st in the USA Today poll, and finished the season with three wins in their last four outings, including a decisive conquest of #12 North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

West took over the head coaching position on November 29, 1993. Less than a month later he already had a bowl victory on his ledger, a 14-13 triumph over Kentucky in the Peach Bowl, Clemson's sixth bowl win in an eight year period. With his debut in the Peach Bowl, West became the sixth coach in NCAA history to make his debut with a program in a bowl game. However, he was just the second coach in history to make his debut in a bowl game without previously coaching his new team as an assistant coach earlier in the season.

West was a mainstay of a Clemson coaching staff that led the Tigers to a 69-20-4 record and six Associated Press Top 20 finishes between 1982-89. During West's first tour of duty with the Tigers as an outside linebacker coach, Clemson played in five bowl games (winning four) and claimed four ACC Championships, including three in a row from 1986-88.

Clemson had a 44-10-1 record against ACC competition during his era on the Tiger staff, an 81 percent winning mark. Additionally, five of those Clemson teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation in rushing defense and scoring defense, and three ranked in the top 12 in the nation in total defense.

Clemson's 1989 defense ranked fifth in the nation in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense and West's outside linebackers had a lot to do with that success. His top four outside linebackers that year all played in the NFL in 1995.

Levon Kirkland (Pittsburgh Steelers), Wayne Simmons (Green Bay Packers) and John Johnson (Cincinnati Bengals) were starters in 1994 in the NFL, and Ashley Sheppard (Minnesota Vikings) was a top reserve. Simmons was a first-round draft pick, Kirkland and Johnson second-round selections and Sheppard was a fourth-round choice. In addition to the four players listed above, Andy Headen (New York Giants) and Terence Mack (St. Louis Cardinals) are former Tigers West helped guide to an NFL career.

West began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tennessee (his alma mater) in 1977. He coached one year of high school football at White County High in Sparta, TN in 1978, then became an assistant at Mississippi in 1979. For the 1980 and 1981 seasons he served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State.

After his career at Clemson (1982-89), West became the running backs coach at Tennessee. During that 1990 season Tennessee won the Southeastern Conference and captured the Sugar Bowl with a win over Virginia. The Volunteers scored a school record 442 points that year and averaged over 410 yards a game in total offense, 205.7 rushing and 205.4 passing. He served as Co-Defensive Coordinator at South Carolina in 1991 and 1992.

In 1993 West took over a UT-Chattanooga team that had won just two games in 1992. He doubled that total in 1993 and guided the Mocs to one of the landmark wins in school history, a 33-31 win over #1 ranked Marshall. He concluded the regular season with a 45-42 victory over Furman. Ironically, his first regular season game as Clemson coach was a victory over Furman.

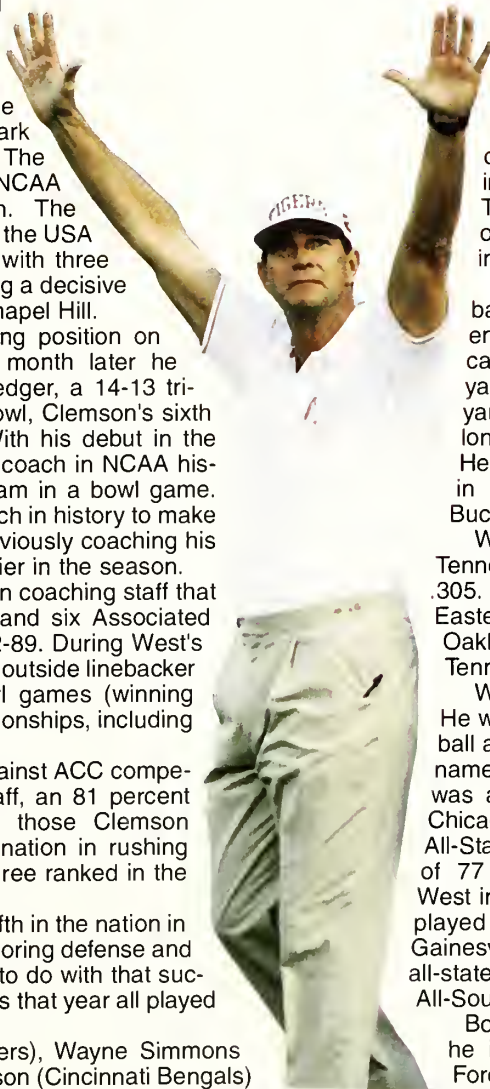

West earned three letters in his four-year career at Tennessee (1972-75). The Vols played in three bowl games and were ranked in a final Top 20 in three seasons. He was the co-captain of Tennessee's 1975 football team and played in the Blue-Gray All-Star game that same year.

He began his college career as a running back, but saw most of his playing time as a tight end. He caught 37 passes for 575 yards in his career with the Vols, including 16 passes for 233 yards as a senior. As a junior he caught an 81-yard pass from Condredge Holloway, still the longest non-scoring play in Tennessee history. He earned a bachelor's degree from Tennessee in 1976 and was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers that same year.

West played two years (1974-75) of baseball at Tennessee and had a career batting average of .305. He hit .367 in 1975 and was named All-SEC Eastern Division. Rick Honeycutt, now with the Oakland A's, was West's teammate on that 1975 Tennessee team that finished 32-16.

West was a multi-sport standout in high school. He was an outfielder in baseball, a guard in basketball and a running back in football. In 1972 he was named a High School All-American in football and was a third-round draft choice in baseball by the Chicago Cubs. Willie Randolph, who went on to an All-Star career with the New York Yankees, was one of 77 future Major League players drafted after West in the regular phase of the June 1972 draft. He played his prep football at Gainesville High in Gainesville, GA for Coach Bobby Gruhn. He was an all-state back as a junior and was also named to the All-Southern team.

Born Thomas Cleveland West on July 31, 1954, he is married to the former Lindsay Watkins of Forest City, NC. The couple has one son, Turner, 7.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Les Herrin

Les Herrin

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line

The Clemson football program has seen a lot of success during Les Herrin's tenure as an assistant coach. In 1981, Herrin arrived at Clemson as a linebacker coach, and the Tigers won the National Championship that season. In his first four years with the Tigers (1981-84) Clemson had a 37-6-2 record during that span. Herrin is the dean of Clemson coaches and is now in his 12th season in Tigertown.

After a brief stint away from Clemson at East Carolina (1985-87) and North Carolina (1988), Herrin returned to the Tiger program in 1989 as defensive line coach. In 1989 Clemson ranked fifth in the nation in scoring, rushing, and total defense. The team followed that performance with a number-one ranking in total defense in 1990, as well as second in scoring and rushing defense.

Herrin has coached several players who have had successful NFL careers. Herrin coached 1981 ACC MVP Jeff Davis, who went on to be captain of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and entered the Clemson Ring of Honor last year. He also tutored 1989 All-Pro Johnny Rembert (New England Patriots), who was a linebacker under Herrin's watchful eye in 1981 and 1982. Chester McGlockton, a Pro Bowl defensive lineman with the Los Angeles Raiders the past two seasons, and Pittsburgh Steelers Super Bowl starter Brentson Buckner, also benefitted from Herrin's teaching.

The Les Herrin File

At Clemson: In his third season as assistant head coach, 7th as the Tiger defensive line coach, and 12th season overall.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - Assistant at R/S Central High in Rutherfordton, NC (1972-74); assistant at Lexington Senior High in Lexington, NC (1975-76); athletic director and head coach at Central Davidson High School in Lexington, NC (1975-79); College - Defensive coordinator at Appalachian State (1980-81); linebacker coach at Clemson (1981-84); linebacker coach at East Carolina (1985-87); outside linebacker coach at the University of North Carolina (1988); defensive line coach at Clemson (1989-94); assistant head coach/tackles and tight ends coach (1995); assistant head coach/defensive line (1996).

Education: Waycross High School in Waycross, GA (1965); B.A. degree in Education from Western Carolina (1971); Master's degree in Health and Physical Education from Western Carolina the following year.

College Playing Experience: Lettered four years in football at Western Carolina.

Personal: Born February 18, 1948...He and his wife Shirley have one son, Deke (20), a member of the football team at Western Carolina.

Darrell Moody

Darrell Moody

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Darrell Moody is in his rookie season at Clemson, but he is no rookie when it comes to the ACC. The N.C. State grad arrived in Tigertown from North Carolina, ironically, his first opponent as a Clemson coach.

Moody handled the offensive chores for the Tar Heels between 1988-95, and he helped them to bowls in each of his last four seasons. His '95 offense joined Florida State's as the only ACC school to average over 240 yards passing and 150 yards rushing per game. He has also coached greats in Ted Brown and Billy Ray Vickers at N.C. State, Dalton Hilliard and Garry James at LSU, and Natone Means and Leon Johnson at North Carolina.

Moody has been coaching at the Division I level for the last 23 years and hopes to translate that experience into a successful offense at Clemson. He has coached in the biggest bowl games, including the Orange Bowl as an assistant at LSU in 1983. He has coached in 10 bowl games overall.

The 1970 N.C. State graduate was an outstanding athlete for the Wolfpack. He was a three-year letterman at N.C. State (1968-70) and led the team in passing in 1969. He was a member of N.C. State's 1966 ACC Championship football team and a starter on the Pack's 1968 College World Series baseball team, the only CWS team in N.C. State history.

At the conclusion of his athletic career he went into coaching and was an assistant coach under Lou Holtz at N.C. State by the time he was 25.

The Darrell Moody File

At Clemson: In his first year as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - Assistant at Asheboro High School (1971-72). College - secondary coach at N.C. State (1973); junior varsity coach at N.C. State (1974); offensive backs and quarterbacks at Southern Mississippi (1975); defensive backs at N.C. State (1976); offensive backs and quarterbacks at N.C. State (1977-79); offensive backs at Louisiana State (1980-83); assistant head coach/offensive backs and quarterbacks at Appalachian State (1984); offensive coordinator at Tulane (1985-87); offensive coordinator/quarterbacks at North Carolina (1988-89); offensive coordinator/offensive backs at North Carolina (1990-95); offensive coordinator/quarterbacks at Clemson (1996-present).

Education: Asheboro High School in Asheboro, NC; B.A. degree in Economics from N.C. State (1970); Masters degree in Vocation and Industrial Education from N.C. State (1974).

Personal Data: Born on September 4, 1948...he and his wife Martha have two sons: Christopher and Michael.

Ellis Johnson

Ellis Johnson

Defensive Coordinator/Outside Linebackers

Ellis Johnson is in his first season as the sole defensive coordinator of the Tigers, his second season as outside linebacker coach, but his third year on the Clemson staff. As defensive line coach and co-defensive coordinator last year, he was a significant reason Clemson ranked in the top 10 in the nation in scoring defense and the top 20 in rushing defense.

Johnson is in just his third year at Clemson, but is no stranger to the area. He attended The Citadel, but he grew up a Clemson fan. He has coached in the state at The Citadel as a graduate assistant, at Gaffney High as an assistant coach and at Spartanburg High as an assistant coach and head coach. His most successful stint in coaching so far took place in Alabama. The Crimson Tide experienced a perfect season and defeated Miami (FL) in the Sugar Bowl to win the National Championship in 1992. He is one of two Tiger assistant coaches on this year's staff with a National Championship ring. Les Herrin, a member of Clemson's 1981 staff, is the other.

Johnson was a part of four outstanding defenses at Alabama. During his tenure (1990-93), Alabama ranked in the top five in the nation in total defense and pass defense three times. The 1992 Alabama defense led the nation in total defense and rushing defense and ranked second nationally in passing defense and scoring defense. Johnson married the former Tonya Taylor in August of 1994.

The Ellis Johnson File

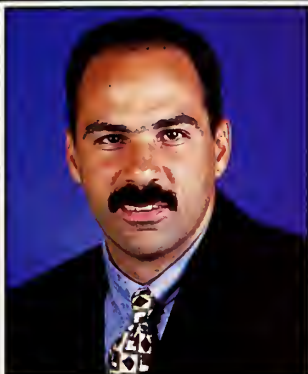

At Clemson: In his first season as the sole defensive coordinator, his second season as outside linebacker coach, and his third season overall as a Clemson assistant.

Education: Earned a degree in Secondary Education from The Citadel (1975).

College Playing Experience: Three-year letterman at The Citadel. Personal Data: Born December 23, 1951...married to the former Tonya Taylor in August 1994.

Richard Bisaccia

Richard Bisaccia

Running Backs/Special Teams/Recruiting Coordinator

Richard Bisaccia enters the 1996 season after coaching the ACC leading rusher in Raymond Priester. He helped to develop Priester into the single-season ground gainer in Clemson history. He also has had a positive effect on fullback Emory Smith, who gained 712 yards last year and combined with Priester to set a Clemson single season rushing record for a starting backfield.

Bisaccia, a Yonkers, NY native, learned how to hold onto the football as a four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College. He has been successful in teaching that aspect of the game, as Clemson had just two lost fumbles in 1994, his first year, tying the all-time NCAA Division I record for fewest lost fumbles in a season. He was a free agent with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL after his college career.

While the 1983 Spring season saw the end of his playing career, the 1983 fall was the beginning of his coaching career. He was named the offensive coordinator at Wayne State in Nebraska his first year out of college and he has been in college coaching ever since.

Unlike many Division I full-time assistant coaches, Bisaccia has not made a lot of moves. He spent five seasons at Wayne State, then six seasons at South Carolina. He has experience coaching on defense and offense, but will concentrate on the running backs position at Clemson.

Bisaccia probably wears more hats than any other Clemson coach. In addition to his time with the running backs, he is also the special teams coach and the recruiting coordinator.

In addition to Bisaccia's recent changes on the gridiron, he has had a family addition within the last two years. In August of '94 his wife Jeanne gave birth to their first son and fourth child, Richard Oakley.

The Richard Bisaccia File

At Clemson: In his third season as the Tigers' running backs coach and special teams coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator at Wayne State (NE) (1983-87); graduate assistant for wide receivers at South Carolina (1988); volunteer assistant for defensive ends at South Carolina (1989-90); tight ends coach at South Carolina (1991); running backs and special teams coach at South Carolina (1992-93); running backs and special teams coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-present).

Education: New Fairfield High School in New Fairfield, CT; Earned a degree in health and physical education from Yankton College (1983).

College Playing Experience: Four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College (1980-83).

Personal Data: Born June 3, 1960...he and his wife Jeanne have four children: daughters, Michele (12), Elizabeth (7), and Madeline (3) and son Richard Oakley (2).

Charlie Harbison

Charlie Harbison

Defensive Backs

Second-year Clemson coach Charlie Harbison has more experience at the professional level than any other current Tiger mentor. Harbison was a starter at strong safety with the New Orleans and Boston Breakers of the USFL in 1983-84 and also signed a free agent contract with the Buffalo Bills in 1982, 1985 and 1986.

Harbison also coached on the pro level with the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks of the World League of American Football, with the Charlotte Barons of the MLFS and with the Charlotte Rage of the AFL. He has coached wide receivers, linebackers, and defensive backs in his career, but has by far his most experience as a secondary coach.

He enters the '96 campaign after a successful season a year ago. His secondary, led by NFL draftees Brian Dawkins and Leomont Evans, ranked in the top 20 in the nation. The 22 interceptions was the eighth best total by a Clemson team (per game) in history and the best mark since the national championship season. In 1994 he coached the secondary at UTEP. This season, his second at Clemson, he will have the opportunity to enhance the careers of a veteran secondary led by Dexter McCleon, Andre Carter and the Ford twins, Peter and Andy.

In addition to his Division I experience, Harbison also has had significant success at the NAIA level. His Gardner Webb team of 1992 had a 12-2 record and played in the NAIA Championship game.

The Charlie Harbison File

At Clemson: In his second year as secondary coach and second at Clemson.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Defensive back coach at Gardner-Webb (1984); wide receiver coach at Gardner-Webb (1992-93); defensive back coach at UTEP (1994); defensive back coach at Clemson (1995-present); Professional -linebacker coach for Charlotte Barons (1990); defensive back/special teams coach for the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks (1991); defensive back coach for Carolina Cougars (1992); defensive back/wide receiver coach for Charlotte Rage (1993-94).

Education: Received bachelors degree in business administration from Gardner-Webb College.

College Playing Experience—Professional—Boston Breakers (1983), New Orleans Breakers (1984), Buffalo Bills (preseason 1985-86).

Personal Data: Born October 27, 1959. He has two sons, Charlie and Stedman.

Reggie Herring

Reggie Herring

Inside Linebackers

Reggie Herring is another example of an outstanding former player who has gone on to become an outstanding coach. A teammate of Rick Stockstill at Florida State, Herring left his own mark with the Seminole program as a player.

Herring was captain of the 1980 Orange Bowl team and earned AP All-America honors in 1980. The Seminoles played in the Orange Bowl and ranked in the top 10 in the nation his junior and senior seasons, and he was recently inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame. He was a three-year starter at Florida State and the Seminoles played in three bowls during his four-year career. Florida State also had three double-figure victory seasons during his career.

Like many of Clemson's assistant coaches in 1996, Herring has a diverse experience history. He has been a part of successful programs at Oklahoma State, Auburn, TCU and now Clemson. He was defensive coordinator at TCU prior to coming to Clemson.

Herring has not made plans over the Christmas holidays for quite some time. He has been a part of college football as a player and coach since 1977. In those 19 seasons he has been to 14 bowl games, 11 as a coach and three as a player.

In his first year at Clemson he coached UPI National Freshman of the Year Anthony Simmons who was also a third-team AP All-American. Herring also coached first-team Academic All-American Andy McCrorey.

The Reggie Herring File

At Clemson: In his third season as inside linebackers coach.

Education: B.S. in Criminology from Florida State (1981).

College Playing Experience: Three-year starter at linebacker for Florida State.

Personal Data: Born on July 3, 1959...married the former Lisa Ward, and they have two children, Caroline and Adam.

John Latina

John Latina Centers and Guards

John Latina has been an offensive coach for a Division I program every year since 1979. He is in his second season coaching the centers and guards at Clemson, a drastic change from coaching the entire offensive line in 1994. This change has allowed him to spend more time with fewer players.

Latina showed his expertise as a teacher last year as he helped Clemson to the fourth best rushing attack in the nation. This year he hopes to build on the '95 season, but will only have one of his three starters returning this year. But if '94 was any indication of how he brings along a young offensive line, the '96 team will be at its best.

The Virginia Tech graduate, who once played against Clemson as an offensive guard (1978), has worked at Virginia Tech, Pittsburgh, Temple and Kansas State. He has already coached in a bowl game with four different schools.

During his career he has worked with Dan Marino, who led the Panthers to a 9-3 ledger and the Cotton Bowl in 1982. Paul Palmer, one of the top rushers in NCAA history with Temple, was also a member of Latina's offense in the 1980s.

Over the five years he was with the program, Kansas State's team in general and offense in particular, showed as much improvement as any in the country. In Latina's second season at Kansas State as offensive line coach and running game coordinator, the Wildcats set a school record for total offense with 4,231 yards. Kansas State advanced to a bowl game in 1992, just the second bowl appearance in school history.

The John Latina File

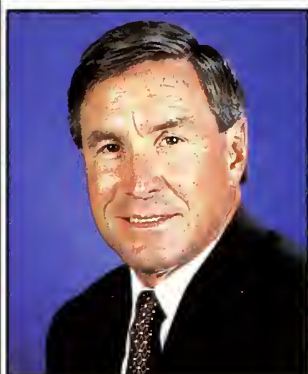

At Clemson: In his second season as guards and centers coach, his third season at Clemson.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Assistant coach at Virginia Tech (1979-81); assistant coach at Pittsburgh (1982); offensive line coach at Temple (1983-88); running game coordinator at Kansas State (1989-93); offensive line coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-1994); offensive guards and centers (1995-present).

Education: Received a bachelor's degree from Virginia Tech (1979).

College Playing Experience: Four-year letter winner at Virginia Tech as an offensive guard (1975-78).

Personal Data: Born September 18, 1957...he and his wife Michele have two sons John Jr. (12) and Michael (9).

Mac McWhorter

Mac McWhorter Offensive Tackles/Tight Ends

Mac McWhorter is in his rookie season at Clemson. He arrives from Georgia, where he spent the last five years as an offensive line coach. The Georgia native is coming off a successful stint in Athens, where he worked with All-American Eric Zeier from 1991-94, and a "tough-nose" running game in '95. He helped Georgia to set numerous team records in many different categories in the last five years. The Dogs led the SEC in rushing and passing during his career with the Bulldogs.

Coach McWhorter played football at Georgia in the early '70s as an offensive lineman; so he is no stranger to the surroundings of Death Valley. He has played and coached in many big bowl games, including the Gator, Peach, Hall of Fame, Citrus, and Sun Bowls.

McWhorter was an AP All-Southeastern Conference selection as a guard in 1973. He was also an honorable mention All-American and was named captain of the Bulldogs. Georgia played in two bowl games during his career.

McWhorter has been a college coach each of the last 16 years and 12 of those years he worked with either Georgia or Georgia Tech. He also coached two years at ACC rival Duke (1990-91). Altogether, McWhorter has coached in six bowl games.

The Mac McWhorter File

At Clemson: In his first year as offensive tackles and tight ends coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - offensive line at Duluth High School (1974-75); offensive coach/offensive line at Douglas County Comprehensive High School (1975-76); offensive coordinator at Douglas County Comprehensive High School (1976-79); Head Coach at Villa Rica High School (1979-80). College - assistant coach/offensive line at Georgia Tech (1980-87); assistant head coach/offensive line at Alabama (1987-88); assistant coach/offensive line at Alabama (1988); Head Coach at West Georgia College (1988-90); assistant coach/offensive line at Duke (1990-91); assistant coach/offensive line and tight ends at Georgia (1991-95); offensive tackles/tight ends at Clemson (1996-present).

Education: Received a bachelor's degree from Georgia (1974).

College Playing Experience: Earned four letters at Georgia as an offensive lineman.

Personal Data: Born June 17, 1950...he and his wife, Rebecca have two daughters: Kasay and Katie; and a son: Hamilton.

Rick Stockstill

Rick Stockstill Wide Receivers

Rick Stockstill has been around successful programs and record setting offenses his entire coaching career. In his first year as quarterback coach at Clemson (1989), the Tigers set a school record for completion percentage (60%). The Tigers led the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense for the 1991 season, and Clemson gained the second most yards in school history in the process.

Last year Clemson had its third most productive offense in history scoring over 300 points and gaining over 4500 yards of total offense.

Stockstill also tutored productive offenses at Central Florida and Bethune-Cookman in his early years as a football coach. As a player, he was the starting quarterback for Florida State. He guided the Seminoles to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances, a pair of top 10 rankings, and was the team captain in 1981.

It is no surprise that Stockstill has moved up the coaching ladder so swiftly because he is the product of an athletic family. His father was head coach at Fernandina Beach High School in Florida for many years. His brother, Jeff, was a starting wide receiver for the Tigers in 1982, and a reserve on the National Championship team of 1981.

Stockstill is in his eighth year with the Clemson program and the Tigers have been to bowl games in five of the previous seven seasons at Clemson. He joins Les Herrin and Whitey Jordan as the only assistant coaches in Clemson history to serve under three different head coaches.

The Rick Stockstill File

At Clemson: In his second season as wide receivers coach and is in his eighth season with the Tigers.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Bethune-Cookman College (1983-84); assistant head coach and wide receiver coach at the University of Central Florida (1985-88); quarterback coach at Clemson (1989-1993); passing game coordinator at Clemson (1992-93); co-offensive coordinator and wide receiver coach (Dec. 1993-1995); wide receivers (1996).

Education: Fernandina Beach High School in Fernandina Beach, FL (1977); B.S. degree in Physical Education from Florida State (1982).

College Playing Experience: Earned three letters in football from Florida State. Captain of 1981 Florida State team.

Personal Data: Born December 23, 1959...he and his wife Sarah were married on July 7, 1990, and had their first child, Brent Forrest, in August, 1994.

RING OF HONOR

The Clemson Ring of Honor is in its third year of existence in Clemson Memorial Stadium. On September 3, 1994, during ceremonies prior to the Clemson vs. Furman football game, Frank Howard, Steve Fuller and Banks McFadden were inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor. On September 2, 1995, Jeff Davis was added to the Clemson Ring of Honor.

The Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Clemson football player can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree, and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Clemson athletics. Honorees will have their jersey retired.

Howard was Clemson's head coach between 1940-69 and he guided Clemson to eight conference championships, six bowl games and six Top 25 seasons. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989 and is the second winningest coach in ACC history. He had 165 wins when he retired.

McFadden was named the Nation's most versatile athlete in 1939. He was an All-American in football and basketball, the only Clemson athlete in history to do that. McFadden led Clemson to its first bowl bid ever, a 6-3 win over Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. He was the number-three pick of the 1940 NFL draft, the highest draft selection in Clemson history.

Fuller is the only football player in Clemson history to be chosen an All-American on the field and in the classroom. Fuller was a first-team Academic All-American in 1977 and 1978 and was a third-team AP All-American in 1978. Fuller, who was ACC MVP on two occasions, is still Clemson's all-time leader in total offense. He was an NCAA Top Five Award winner in 1979, the only Clemson athlete to win the award.

Davis, captain of Clemson's 1981 National Championship team was a first-team All-American that year when he led the Tigers in tackles with 175, the highest total in Clemson history. Davis was also named the MVP of the ACC and was the Defensive MVP of the Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska, the game that clinched the national championship for the Tigers.

RING OF HONOR GUIDELINES

Purpose: The charge of the Ring of Honor committee is to bestow the highest athletic award presented by the Clemson Athletic Department on deserving candidates. The committee will examine the careers of candidates in all Clemson sports.

Nominations: Nominations are made by any member of IPTAY, a member of the faculty or a relative of a worthy nominee, and are accepted up to 30 days prior to the committee meeting. The committee will meet once every two years in the month of April to vote on the nominations.

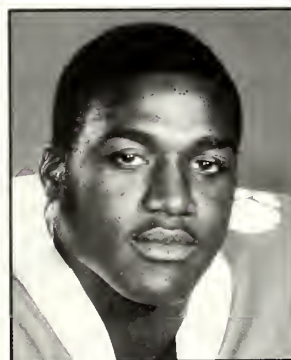

Frank Howard

Banks McFadden

Steve Fuller

Jeff Davis

Nominations will be made in the form of a letter with a complete list of accomplishments and submitted to the chair of the committee, currently Clemson Sports Information Director Tim Bourret, who will retain an active file of nominations. Letters of support may also be submitted. All nominations will remain on file for a period of three voting committee meetings (five years). The Chair of the Committee will screen all nominations to make sure they meet eligibility requirements.

Eligibility: This committee will recognize individuals who have demonstrated consistent and unique national excellence in their sport during their Clemson career. Their accomplishments must be significant on an individual and team basis. Their statistical accomplishments must be noteworthy, but they should also have an outstanding record in terms of leadership. In general, they must have made a noteworthy contribution to the history of the Clemson Athletic Program.

Athletic accomplishments after their Clemson career are not a primary consideration in the nomination, but they must retain an unblemished record of citizenship after they leave Clemson.

A candidate must be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame and must hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited four-year University or college.

Financial contributions to Clemson University will not be a consideration when evaluating the candidates.

For a coach to be nominated he or she must be retired from coaching that sport at the college level.

Selection Process: Each member of the 11-person selection committee will cast one vote per sport. An honoree must obtain at least seven votes to be selected. There will be just one ballot. The committee does not have to select any honorees at its meeting. There shall be no more than one honoree in a sport for every two years.

Conferring: In the sport of football, the honoree will have his name, number, years participated and helmet enshrined in the Ring of Honor at Clemson Memorial Stadium. In the sport of basketball, the honoree's jersey will be hung from the rafters of Littlejohn Coliseum. In the sport of baseball a jersey replica will be hung from the fence of Tiger Field. Other sports will establish appropriate sites at the home facility.

When a student-athlete is selected the person's jersey is honored, but the jersey number may be worn in the future. However, it is encouraged that the number be issued only on special occasions. These occasions are determined by the head coach and athletic director. The ceremony honoring the recipient will be determined from a meeting between the honoree, the athletic director, the committee chair and the head coach of the sport involved.

ACC FOOTBALL

*Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 56 NCAA and AIAW championships, including 27 in men's competition and 29 in women's. In addition, 96 men and 24 women have earned the coveted title of the NCAA champion.

*The ACC is one of only two conferences to capture three or more national football titles since 1980. Clemson laid claim to the league's second title in 1981, Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990 while Florida State pocketed national title number four in 1994.

*The nine schools that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 310 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 48 first-team academic All-Americans. ACC teams have had 1,336 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 82 first-round draft selections.

*If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, the ACC over the years has proved itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. After posting a 3-1 bowl mark in 1995, the ACC moved past the Pacific-10 as the conference with the best all-time bowl winning percentage. The league's teams are a combined 76-63-5 (.545) in post-season play.

BOWL RECORD BY CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE	APP	RECORD	PCT
ACC	144	76-63-5	.545
Pac-10	156	81-69-6	.538
Big 8	131	66-64-1	.508
Big 10	153	75-75-3	.500
SEC	273	130-130-13	.500
Big East	94	44-49-1	.473
WAC	80	35-42-3	.456
SWC	141	61-74-6	.454

*Three ACC teams, Clemson, Florida State and Georgia Tech, are among the nation's top 10 winningest bowl teams. The Seminoles are 15-8-2 in bowl play, while the Yellow Jackets are 17-8 and that .680 winning percentage is tied for best in NCAA history. Clemson is eighth at 12-8 (.600).

BOWL RECORD BY SCHOOL

SCHOOL	APP	RECORD	PCT
Florida State	25	15-8-2	.680
Georgia Tech	25	17-8	.680
Oklahoma	32	20-11-1	.661
Southern Cal	38	25-13	.658
Penn State	32	20-10-2	.656
Notre Dame	21	13-8	.619
Alabama	47	27-17-3	.606
Clemson	20	12-8	.600

*Ten times over the past 16 years, an ACC member school has claimed the CFA Academic Achievement Award which is awarded to a CFA member institution with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the 10th-straight year as 1,185 student-athletes were recognized for their work in the classroom.

*The 1995-96 academic year concluded with the league pocketing two more national team titles and seven individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 23 national team titles the last six years.

*In addition, seven ACC schools - North Carolina (6), Virginia (21), Florida State (23), Clemson (27), N.C. State (32), Maryland (34) and Duke (39) were ranked in the Top 40 of the Sears Directors' Cup, an all-sports award honoring the Division I school with the best performance by women's and men's athletic teams during the 1995-96 academic year.

*The ACC placed at least one team in the Top 10 nationally in 13 of the 23 sports sponsored by the league. Other records of note during the 1995-96 season include 83 teams competing at the NCAA Championships, four bowl teams and 20 Top 10 showings.

*Six ACC teams, in six different sports, representing three of the nine member institutions, earned a No. 1 ranking during the course of the past academic year.

*The ACC set a single season attendance mark in 1995 averaging an all-time high 46,588 fans per game. The conference drew more than 2.2 million fans for a fifth straight year. Over 51 home dates, ACC schools attracted 2,376,003, the third highest total in league history and a five percent increase over 1994. ACC teams played to 89 percent of their stadiums' capacity.

*For the second year in a row, five ACC players were among 24 players selected to the Hitachi/CFA Scholar Athlete team. Florida State's Todd Rebol, Clemson's Andye McCrorey, N.C. State's Jonathan Risser, North Carolina's Russell Babb and Wake Forest's Rusty LaRue were selected.

*ACC football teams made 24 appearances on television during the 1995 season. League teams made 11 appearances on ABC, nine on ESPN, and one each on CBS, NBC, TBS, and Prime.

Priester led the ACC in rushing in 1995, the first Tiger to win that statistical crown since 1987. He is one of many outstanding ACC running backs in 1996.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK

Play of the Decade

Clemson had a 24-0 lead at South Carolina on November 19, 1977. But, the Gamecocks made an incredible comeback to take a 27-24 lead. Clemson got a final possession with under three minutes left and Steve Fuller drove Clemson down field. With 49 seconds left, Fuller arched a pass to the left corner of the endzone and Jerry Butler made a leaping catch, giving Clemson a 31-27 victory and a berth in the Gator Bowl, Clemson's first bowl bid in 18 years.

Bennie Cunningham

Clemson is not known for its great tight ends, but Bennie Cunningham does hold legendary status. He was a first-team All-American in 1974 and 1975 and went on to a standout NFL career where he played on two Super Bowl Championship teams with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He concluded his career with 69 receptions for 1044 yards and 10 touchdowns.

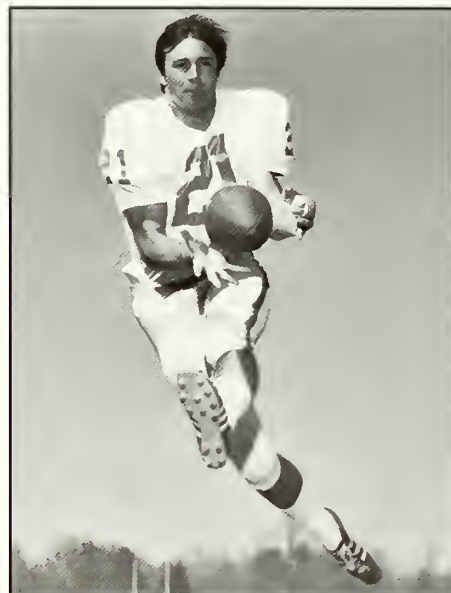

Red Parker

Red Parker took over for Hootie Ingram in 1973. While his team's posted just a 17-25-2 record, he will be remembered for an outstanding 1974 season that included wins over Georgia and Georgia Tech, and a 6-0 home record. The likeable Parker is most remembered for his abilities as a recruiter.

He brought in six players (Steve Fuller, Jerry Butler, Jeff Bostic, Joe Bostic, Jim Stuckey and Bubba Brown) who were named to Clemson's Centennial Team this past summer. The group formed the nucleus of Clemson's 1978 squad that finished 11-1.

Don Kelley

One of Clemson's top all-around players of the early 1970s was Don Kelley. He had what must be considered the greatest all-around game ever by a Clemson defensive back in 1970 against Maryland. He had 223 return yards in the contest, a record 167 on four punt returns, and 56 on an interception. He also had a fumble recovery. The 223 return yards is nearly 100 yards more than any other player in Clemson history for a single game.

Tiger Timeline

by Sam Blackman

July 21, 1970 — Clemson announced the use of a new logo - THE TIGER PAW. With the aid of Henderson Advertising Agency, the Tiger paw became the new trademark of Clemson athletics.

August 15, 1970—For the first time in 30 years Clemson opened its preseason practice without Frank Howard serving as the head coach. Hootie Ingram opened practice for the 1970 season at 9:45 AM and welcomed 95 players to practice that day, including 38 returning lettermen. Ingram, 36 at the time, came to Clemson from Arkansas, where he had been an assistant coach for three years.

September 12, 1970—Clemson opened the Hootie Ingram era with a 24-0 victory over The Citadel at Clemson Memorial Stadium. Ray Yaeger scored two touchdowns and rushed for 82 yards in 19 attempts to lead the Tigers offense. B.B. Elvington led the defense with 17 tackles. John McMakin had a career high 107 yards receiving in five catches.

September 19, 1970—Hootie Ingram made it 2-0 to open his career with a 27-17 victory over Virginia on the 28th anniversary of the opening of Death Valley. Tommy Kendrick connected on 13-21 passes for 156 yards and two touchdowns for the Tigers. Ray Yaeger again was a star with 84 yards rush in 17 attempts, caught a pass for 15 yards and was 2-2 passing for 46 yards.

October 24, 1970—Clemson lost to Duke on this day, but Don Kelley provided a spark with a 100-yard (actually 102 yards) interception return for a score, longest in Clemson history. Tommy Kendrick was 23-39 for 244 yards passing for the Tigers, still third most completions in a game in Clemson history. Wes Chesson led Duke with 13 receptions for 149 yards.

October 31, 1970—Don Kelley had the greatest return game in ACC history when he gained 223 yards on interception and punt returns in 24-11 Clemson victory. Kelley took over the game in the fourth period, as the two teams were tied at three heading into the fourth period. First, he recovered a Maryland fumble at the Terp 28. Then, on the next Maryland possession, he had an 85-yard punt return for a score. On the next possession he had a 56-yard interception return that set up a score. On the next Maryland possession Clemson defender Jewel McLaurin had a 68-yard interception return for a score. Clemson had 218 return yards for the fourth period alone. Some teams don't have that total in a season. Kelley ended the day with four punt returns for 167 yards, a Clemson single game record for punt return yards. The Clemson team had 143 yards on four interceptions in the game, still a school mark for interception return yards.

October 9, 1971—Hootie Ingram gained his only win over a ranked team as Clemson coach when the Tigers defeated Duke 3-0 in a defensive struggle at the Oyster Bowl in Norfolk, VA. Duke was ranked 14th in the nation entering the contest.

October 16, 1971—Tommy Kendrick completed nine of 14 passes for 252 yards in Clemson's victory over Virginia in Richmond. His passing efficiency

Clemson 39, South Carolina 21

The Tigers ran wild over the Gamecocks in the final game of the 1974 season, thanks to a ground game that churned out 433 yards. Ken Callicutt had the finest game of his career with 197 yards rushing and another 55 yards in receptions. Mark Fellers had a sterling all-around performance at quarterback, hitting 6-8 passes for 126 yards and he also had 106 yards rushing, as he outplayed Jeff Grantz, who connected on just 6-22 passes and was intercepted three times, twice by Dennis Smith.

Clemson 32, Virginia 27

Clemson overcame a nine-point deficit in the fourth quarter to defeat Virginia in Death Valley. Jim Lanzendoan caught a 28-yard scoring pass from Ken Pengitore with 6:44 left to win the game. Pengitore had an outstanding all-around game, hitting 15-23 passes for 227 yards and also rushed for 83 yards. Lanzendoan caught eight passes for 141 yards. Clemson had 275 yards rushing and 227 passing for 502 total.

Charley Pell

Clemson football was rejuvenated in 1977 and Charlie Pell was the focal point of this renewed spirit. He was named ACC Coach of the Year in his first two years as Clemson coach, the only football coach in league history to win the award in his first two years as head coach. He had a 19-4-1 record in his two seasons and brought Clemson to the top 20 of the AP poll for the first time in 10 years.

Tiger Timeline

of 239.06 for that game is still fifth best in Clemson history. Don Kelley had 128 yards in receiving, becoming the first and still only player in Clemson history to have a 100-yard receiving game, 100-yard interception return game and 100-yard punt return game in Clemson history.

November 27, 1971—Eddie Seigler became the first Clemson kicker in history to boot a field goal of at least 50 yards. His 52-yarder was important in the 17-7 Clemson win. The Tigers had six interceptions defensively to set a school record (since tied last year against N.C. State).

October 7, 1971—Dave Thomas (no, not the Wendy's guy), set a Clemson record with 174 kickoff return yards on five attempts in a loss at Georgia Tech.

November 25, 1972—For the first time in Hootie Ingram's career, the Tigers ran down the hill to enter the stadium. Ingram had abandoned the tradition when he took over as coach. Clemson's seniors asked Ingram prior to the last home game of the 1972 season if they could run down the hill and he granted permission. Clemson responded with a 7-6 win over archrival South Carolina. Hal Davis led the Tigers with 100 yards rushing in 13 attempts.

December 5, 1972—Hootie Ingram resigned as Clemson football coach, and Red Parker was named as his replacement.

September 8, 1973—Red Parker won his first game as coach, a 14-12 triumph over The Citadel.

October 6, 1973—Mitch Tyner got off an 81-yard punt in Clemson's 30-15 loss against Texas A&M, the longest punt in Clemson history.

October 13, 1973—Ken Pengitore had the first of two 300-yard total offense games in the month of October, 1973 when he had 310 yards against Virginia in a thrilling Clemson victory, 32-27. Pengitore hit Jim Lanzendoan with a 28-yard scoring pass with just 6:44 left to give Clemson the victory.

Pengitore rushed for 83 yards and passed for 227. He remains the only Clemson quarterback to have two 300-yard total offense games in a career, never mind a month.

November 10, 1973—Ken Pengitore had one of the best all-around games in Clemson history when he had 312 yards total offense in a 37-29 Clemson victory at North Carolina. Pengitore had 212 yards passing and 100 yards rushing in the performance. He hit 12-17 passes and threw one touchdown in the contest.

September 28, 1974—Georgia Tech made its first appearance in history at Clemson. For years Clemson had always gone to Atlanta for the series. Clemson won the contest 21-17.

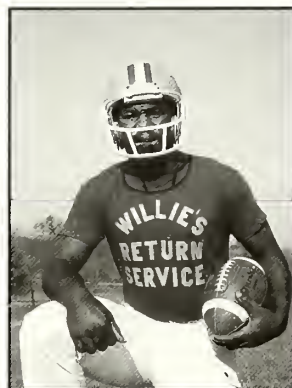

October 5, 1974—Clemson defeated Georgia in Death Valley, 28-24, giving Clemson consecutive wins over Georgia and Georgia Tech in the same season for the first time since 1914. Mike O'Cain scored what proved to be the game winner with just

Clemson 7, Georgia 6

The landmark victory for Clemson football in the 1970s and in perhaps the modern era, was a 7-6 victory over Georgia in Athens. Clemson had not won in Athens since 1914 and the Bulldogs were the defending SEC champions. Clemson had lost its opener. It was a classic defensive struggle that came down to a two-point game-winning conversion attempt by the Bulldogs with just six seconds left. Jeff Pyburn's pass was overthrown and Clemson celebrated. Randy Scott led the Tigers with 11 tackles and an interception for the Tiger defense that held the Dawgs to just 281 yards.

Willie's Return Service

Perhaps the most underrated athlete of the 1970s was Willie Jordan. In 1975 Jordan was a quarterback as a first-year freshman and exceeded the statistics of then freshman Steve Fuller. He had 288 yards total offense against Georgia Tech that year. By 1978, Jordan was starting in the secondary and also was one of the top return men in the nation. He wore a T-Shirt that said "Willie's Return Service" under his uniform.

Jim Stuckey

Jim Stuckey was a common denominator on Clemson's defensive front on bowl teams in 1977, 1978 and 1979. He still ranks among Clemson's top quarterback sackers and went on to win a Super Bowl Championship with the San Francisco 49ers.

Bubba Brown

Who is Clemson's career tackle leader? No, it is not Jeff Davis, but one of Davis's teammates, Bubba Brown. Marlon "Bubba" Brown had 515 stops in his career and might be the greatest player in Clemson history not to make All-American. His size prevented him from an NFL career, but those who saw him will state he was one of the hardest hitters in Clemson history.

8:44 left on a one-yard run.

November 9, 1974—Ken Callicutt rushed for 170 yards on 19 attempts, leading Clemson to a 54-32 victory over North Carolina. The two teams combined for 86 points, fourth highest scoring game in Clemson history.

November 16, 1974—The Playing surface of Memorial Stadium was named Frank Howard Field. This day also featured the longest play from scrimmage in Clemson history, a 97-yard touchdown pass from Mark Fellers to Craig Brantley. Brantley had two catches for 152 yards in that game, the fewest number of touches for a 100-yard game in receiving or rushing in Clemson history. Clemson defeated Virginia, 28-9.

November 23, 1974—Clemson thrashed South Carolina, 39-21 to close a perfect 6-0 season in Death Valley and to close the season with four straight wins, regardless of site. Ken Callicutt had 197 yards rushing and 55 more receiving to key the Clemson attack. It was a Clemson record for all-purpose rushing at the time. South Carolina players wore two different color helmets in the game, as the Gamecock seniors wore black helmets and the rest of the team wore white. Willie Anderson had 21 tackles from his middle guard position, still a Clemson record for an interior lineman. He was named Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week. Clemson rushed for 433 yards in the contest, still one of the top 10 figures in Clemson history.

September 27, 1975—Freshman Willie Jordan put on a show at Georgia Tech in a 33-28 Clemson loss. The first-year freshman who would become one of Clemson's greatest return men in history by the end of his career, completed an 80-yard touchdown pass to Craig Brantley, fifth longest pass completion in Clemson history. It gave Brantley three touchdown receptions of 75 yards or more in his career, the only Tiger to do that. For the day, Jordan was 13 of 21 for 251 yards and he had a total of 288 yards in total offense, most ever by a Clemson freshman. He was named ACC Rookie of the Week for his performance. Joey Walters collected six receptions for 115 yards to support Willie Jordan. Clemson had 300 yards passing as a team, one of four 300-yard passing games in Clemson history.

October 18, 1975—Clemson lost a close contest with Duke, 25-21. Willie Jordan did his best to bring Clemson victory as he completed 11-13 passes, still third best single game completion percentage in Tiger history. Jordan had 202 yards passing in the contest and his efficiency rating of 232 is still in the top 10 in Clemson history.

November 8, 1975—Mike O' Cain had the best passing game of his career in Clemson's 38-35 win over North Carolina. O' Cain connected on 12-19 passes for 243 yards.

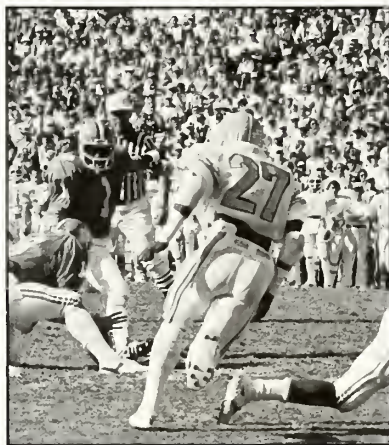

April 8, 1976—Bennie Cunningham was taken in the first round by the Pittsburgh Steelers, Clemson's first first-round draft pick in 16 years.

October 16, 1976—Duke's Vince Fusco kicked six

1978: A Landmark Season

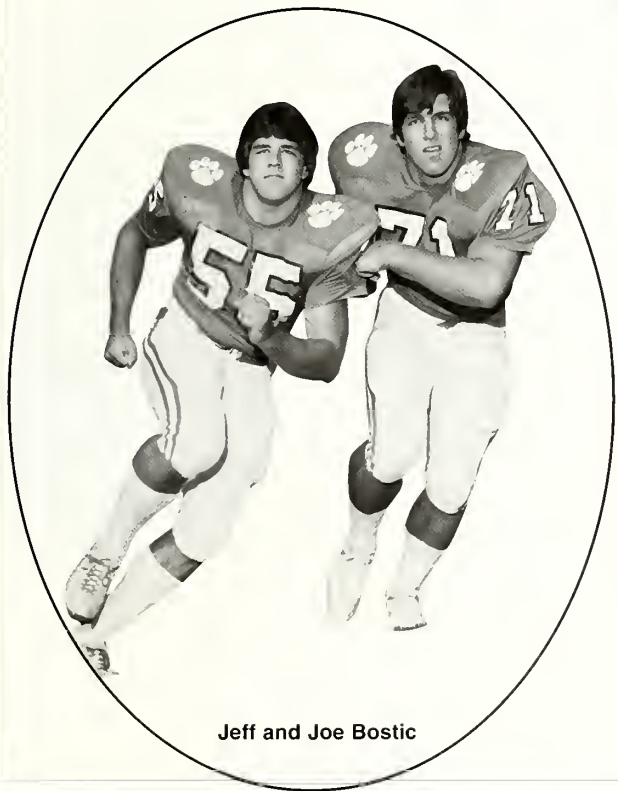

While the 1981 and 1939 seasons are the most celebrated in Clemson history because of their respective championships, the 1978 team might be the most talented. More Centennial Team members were on this team than any other team in Clemson history. The 11-1 Tigers lost just one game, at Georgia. A look to the team picture tells us that there were six first-round draft picks and 11 players who would earn All-America honors on that roster.

Obed Ariri

One of the most popular players at Clemson in the late 1970s was Obed Ariri. The 5-9 kicker who came to Clemson as a soccer player became Clemson's first player in history to lead the nation in a statistical category, as he paced the nation in field goals in 1980 with 23. His 52-yard field goal to win the 1980 Virginia game is the longest field goal in Clemson history that won a game. At left, he becomes the NCAA's all-time field goal leader with a 37-yarder against North Carolina in 1980.

Clemson won the battle of the Browns in this ABC televised contest in 1978. The Pack was promoting Ted Brown for the Heisman Trophy, but it was Clemson's Lester Brown who had a 100-yard rushing day, and Bubba Brown who had 17 tackles and was named Sports Illustrated Defensive Player of the Week. Rex Varn had a 94-yard interception return for a touchdown that put the game away for the Tigers.

field goals to set a national record and still an ACC record in an 18-18 tie in Death Valley. His last field goal, a 56-yarder, hit the crossbar and bounced over on the last play of the game to tie the contest, and stun a Clemson homecoming crowd.

November 21, 1976—Clemson scrimmaged before the game at an adjacent practice field and warmed up there until game time before a 28-9 upset of South Carolina. Warren Ratchford led the rushers for Clemson with 127 yards in just 10 attempts. South Carolina ran off 88 plays in the contest, yet Clemson won the game.

December 1, 1976—Charlie Pell was named head football coach.

September 17, 1977—Clemson defeated Georgia 7-6 and this marked the first time that Clemson had won in Athens since 1914. Georgia was 17th ranked heading into the contest and it was Clemson's first win over a top 20 team since 1971. Clemson knocked down a two-point conversion play in the final minute to gain the victory. Charley Pell and the Tigers stopped at a store on the short route back to Clemson and passed out cigars on the team bus to celebrate the victory.

September 24, 1977—Clemson defeated Georgia Tech in Atlanta, 31-14 behind the pass catching of Jerry Butler. The Clemson All-American who caught at least one pass in each of his final 35 games as a Tiger, had five receptions for 163 yards, still a Clemson record for reception yardage in a single game. His 32.6 yards per catch is also still a single game yards per reception mark. Lester Brown led the rushing attack with 134 yards in 28 carries.

October 17, 1977—Clemson moves into the top 20 of the AP poll for the first time since 1967 after defeating Duke 17-11. Clemson was 5-1 at this point in the season.

October 22, 1977—Clemson gained a key 7-3 victory over N.C. State, a triumph that pushed Clemson towards a bowl bid. The key play of the game was provided by Willie Jordan, who had a 75-yard punt return that set up Clemson's touchdown, a pass from Steve Fuller to Jerry Butler.

October 29, 1977—Obed Ariri kicked a 57-yard field goal to set an ACC record for the longest field goal in a 26-0 win over Wake Forest. Ariri's record was tied 13 years later by Chris Gardocki against Appalachian State. It was one of four field goals by Ariri in the Wake Forest game, the first time in Clemson history that a Tiger had kicked four field goals in a single game.

November 12, 1977—Fifth ranked Notre Dame, led by quarterback Joe Montana and 25 other players who would eventually play in the NFL, defeated Clemson in Death Valley 21-17. It was the closest game for the Irish in the last nine games of the season. Notre Dame won the national championship that year. A total of 38 players who participated in this game went on to play in the National Football League. The list included both quarterbacks, Montana and Steve Fuller, who both won Super Danny Ford's first game as head coach was also Woody Hayes final game at Ohio State. Clemson's first win over a Big Ten team was a thriller as the young Tigers rode the leadership of Steve Fuller in his final game. Reserve middle guard Charlie Bauman made the game saving interception with just two minutes left, deep in Clemson territory. An irate Hayes took a swing at Bauman on the Ohio State sidelines, leading to his departure as Buckeye coach.

Charlie Bauman's only career interception was memorable.

Bowl Championships.

November 19, 1977—A 20-yard pass from Steve Fuller to Jerry Butler with just 49 seconds to play enabled Clemson to defeat South Carolina, 31-27. The Tigers had led 24-0, then South Carolina came back to take a 27-24 lead prior to the final Clemson drive. The win earned the Tigers a trip to the Gator Bowl.

December 30, 1977—Clemson made its first bowl appearance in 18 years against Pittsburgh in the 1977 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville. Matt Cavanaugh, who had quarterbacked the Panthers to the National Championship the previous season, was masterful and gained 402 yards of total offense for Pittsburgh.

January 3, 1978—For the first time in 18 years, Clemson finished in the top 20 of the AP poll. Charley Pell's Tigers were 19th in the final AP poll.

August 25, 1978—Clemson was ranked in the pre-season AP poll (18th) for the first time since 1967.

September 16, 1978—Clemson won its 100th game in Death Valley with a 58-3 win over the Citadel. Steve Fuller was a perfect 9-9 passing in the contest, an all-time Clemson record for consecutive completions. Clemson was a record 15-17 passing in the contest and set a school record for team passing efficiency (269.4) and completion percentage (88.24). Clemson gained 567 yards in total offense on the day, fifth highest in Clemson history.

October 7, 1978—Steve Fuller raced 75 yards for a touchdown, longest run in Clemson history by a quarterback. It was the key play in a 38-7 Clemson victory.

October 28, 1978—Rex Varn sped 94 yards with an interception to provide the big play in Clemson's 33-10 victory at N.C. State. Clemson won the battle of Browns on this day. The Pack was promoting Ted Brown for the Heisman Trophy, but it was Clemson's Bubba Brown and Lester Brown who were the stars. Lester Brown had 117 yards rushing and scored twice for the Tigers, while Bubba Brown had 17 tackles and was named Sports Illustrated National Defensive Player of the Week.

November 11, 1978—Clemson inched closer to its first ACC title since 1967 with a 13-9 victory over North Carolina. Lester Brown rushed for 154 yards in a career high 28 carries for the Tigers.

November 18, 1978—Clemson clinched the ACC championship with a thrilling victory over Maryland in College Park. Steve Fuller hit touchdown passes of 87 yards to Jerry Butler and 62 yards to Dwight Clark. Butler had five catches for 140 yards on the day. The game also included a 98-yard run by Maryland's Steve Atkins, the longest run in history against the Tigers.

November 25, 1978—Clemson fans used the south upper deck for the first time in Clemson's 41-23 win over South Carolina. At the time it was the largest crowd ever to see a game from Philadelphia to Birmingham. Clemson had three backs gain over Lott's TD run was the game winner in South Bend.

Notre Dame Series

Clemson continued its march up the ladder of college football powers with its two-game series against Notre Dame. Notre Dame won 21-17 in Death Valley in 1977, as Joe Montana scored two four-quarter touchdowns. Clemson came back to defeat the Irish in Notre Dame Stadium two years later. Billy Lott's 26-yard scoring run capped Clemson's comeback and handed the Irish a defeat that kept Dan Devine's Irish out of a bowl game.

Thirty-eight future pros played in the 1977 Clemson-Notre Dame game in Death Valley.

Tiger Timeline

100 yards rushing in the game for the first time since 1950. Steve Fuller led the way from the quarterback position with 108 yards in 16 attempts, while Marvin Sims had 15-104 and Lester Brown also had a 100-yard day. The victory also clinched Clemson's first 10-win season since 1948. David Sims provided one of the big plays of the day with a 71-yard punt. The two teams combined to rush for 707 yards, most in Clemson history for two teams combined.

November 28, 1978—Steve Fuller finished tied for sixth place in the Heisman Trophy voting, and he received 19 first-place votes.

December 4, 1978—Charlie Pell resigned as Clemson coach.

December 5, 1978—Danny Ford, offensive line coach for the Tigers, was named as Pell's replacement. He became the head coach at age 30, the youngest Division I head coach in the nation.

December 10, 1978—It was announced that Danny

Ford would be the Tigers' coach in the Gator Bowl game.

December 29, 1978—Clemson defeated Ohio State 17-15 at the Gator Bowl in Danny Ford's first game as head coach, and Woody Hayes' final game at Ohio State. The winning touchdown was scored by freshman Cliff Austin. He would score another important touchdown three years later against Nebraska. Charlie Bauman made the key play with an interception of an Art Schlichter pass at the Clemson 24 with just two minutes left. He ran the return out of bounds on the Ohio State sideline and was punched by Hayes. It would be the final game of Hayes' storied career.

January 2, 1979—Clemson was ranked in a tie for sixth with Notre Dame in the final AP poll. The Tigers closed the season with an 11-1 record and had 950 poll points. The number-six ranking was the highest final ranking in Clemson history and the highest national ranking at any juncture since September 21, 1959.

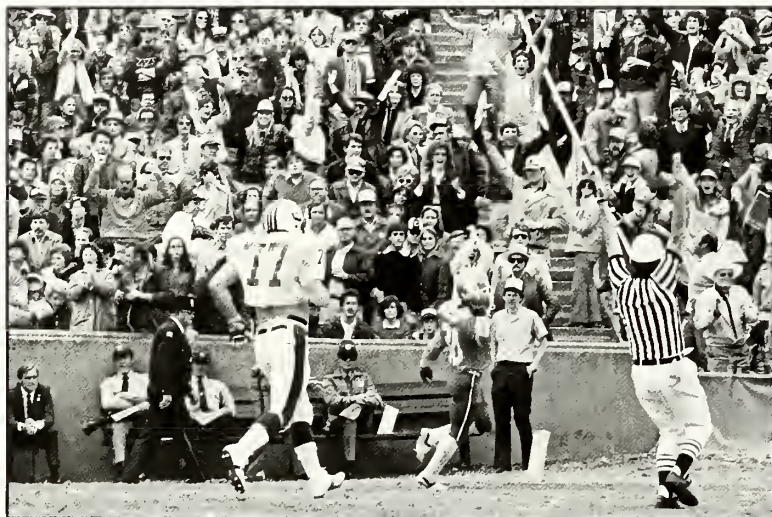

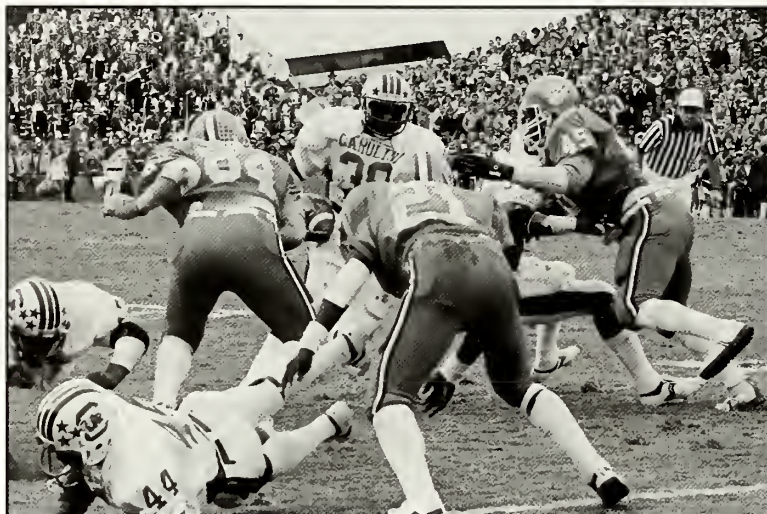

May 3, 1979—All-American Jerry Butler became the fifth pick of the 1979 NFL draft when he was chosen by the Buffalo Bills. This was the highest selection of a Clemson player since the 1939 season when Banks McFadden was the #3 selection of the Brooklyn Dodgers. Steve Fuller was also taken in the first round, giving Clemson two first-round NFL draft picks in the same year for the first time.

September 8, 1979—Clemson opened the season with four straight home games, the only time in history that has happened. Billy Lott and Perry Tuttle got the season off to a great start with an 81-yard scoring pass early in a 21-0 victory over Furman. Tuttle had six catches for 145 yards in the contest. It was Danny Ford's first regular season game as head coach of the Tigers.

September 22, 1979—Clemson won its 400th game in history with a 12-7 victory over Georgia. Marvin Sims was the workhorse for Clemson with 146 yards in 25 carries. Sims had just one negative rushing

Orange Outbreak

Clemson's drive to the 1981 National Championship started in the final home game of the 1980 season. Willie Underwood, playing in his final game as a Tiger, had two interceptions for 101 return yards, including a 37-yard touchdown return. Those were the first two interceptions of his four-year career. The Tiger defense kept Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers out of the endzone, a key to Clemson's 27-6 victory.

Willie Underwood had two interceptions vs. South Carolina in his final home game, the only interceptions of his 4-year career.

The intangibles were also on Clemson's side this day as the Tigers surprised everyone by wearing Orange Pants for the first time. Clemson has continued this tradition of excellence since, posting a 29-6 record in the all orange garb.

Tiger Timeline

play in his entire career and it happened in this game, ironically the contest in which he had his career high rushing total.

November 9, 1979—Clemson gained a big win with a 19-10 triumph at North Carolina. Obed Ariri kicked four field goals in the contest and Billy Lott scored on a naked boot leg to clinch the victory.

November 16, 1979—Clemson won at Notre Dame behind Obed Ariri's three field goals, 16-10. The Irish had taken a 10-0 lead in the first half and then scored a touchdown that was called back by a holding penalty. But Ariri's field goals and a 26-yard touchdown run by quarterback Billy Lott proved to be the difference in the second half. It was just the third time in the last 40 years that Notre Dame's seniors lost their final home game. The next day Ariri kicked the only goal for the Clemson soccer team in an NCAA tournament victory over South Carolina.

December 31, 1979—Clemson played its final game of the decade of the 1970s when it met Baylor in the Peach Bowl in Atlanta. The Tigers dropped a 24-18 decision, but Billy Lott was outstanding, completing a career high 17 passes for a career high 213 yards. Perry Tuttle had eight receptions for 108 yards in the contest. Clemson recovered an onside kick late in the game. The Tigers have not recovered one since.

October 11, 1980—Obed Ariri booted a 52-yard field goal with six seconds left to give Clemson a 27-24 victory at Virginia. Clemson had trailed by two touchdowns entering the fourth quarter and this is the greatest fourth-quarter comeback in Clemson history. Ariri's boot is also the longest field goal to win a game in Clemson history.

November 8, 1980—Jeff Davis had a school record 24 tackles vs. North Carolina in a head-to-head battle with Lawrence Taylor. The Tigers had the ball inside the North Carolina five with a chance to win with two minutes left, but Taylor sacked quarterback Homer Jordan on third down. Obed Ariri, who led the nation in field goals in 1980 with 23, booted a 27-yarder in the first half to become the NCAA's career field goal leader. The Tar Heels were victorious 24-19, Clemson's last home loss for four seasons and the last time North Carolina has beaten Clemson in Death Valley.

November 22, 1980—Clemson defeated 14th ranked South Carolina 27-6 in a contest that gave the Tigers momentum heading into the 1981 season. Willie Underwood played the game of his life with two interceptions for 101 yards, including one for a 37-yard touchdown. Underwood entered the game, the 47th of his career, without an interception. He was named Sports Illustrated National Defensive Player of the Week. Clemson kept South Carolina Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers out of the endzone.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

In 1991, two very special anniversaries in the Clemson football tradition were observed. Not only did the 1991 season mark the 10th anniversary of Clemson's National Championship season, but it also marked the 50th birthday of the place where the Tigers won six games that season: Memorial Stadium.

In the first 54 years of Memorial Stadium, Clemson has a record of 187-70-7, including a 29-8-1 ledger over the last six seasons. Clemson had a 16-game unbeaten streak at home between 1990-92 and has a career winning ratio of 72.0 percent.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers who call it home, but the stadium was constructed against the advice of at least one Clemson coach. Just before head coach Jess Neely left for Rice University after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message. "Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the Y.M.C.A. That's all you'll ever need".

Instead of following Coach Neely's advice, however, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place would take some clearing-there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work: clearing, cutting, pouring, and forming. Finally, on September 19, 1942, Clemson Memorial Stadium opened with the Tiger football team thrashing Presbyterian College, 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for Opening Day would soon grow; and grow and grow. This year Clemson celebrates its 55th year in this outstanding facility.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 40's, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including many football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor, and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The building of the stadium did not proceed without a few problems. One day during the clearing of the land, one young football player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then commenced to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, however, the boy was swollen twice his size and had to be put in the hospital.

Memorial Stadium is one of the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the nation with capacity listed at 81,474.

There are many other stories about the stadium including one stating that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner of the stadium as the concrete poured.

Howard says that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems. "About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he says. "After three weeks, on July 15, we had only gotten halfway through.

"I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far, and I would give them three more week's pay for however long it took. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through. After that it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard says that on the first day of the first game in the stadium,"the gates were hung at 1:00 pm and we played at 2:00 pm." But that would be all of the construction for a while. Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added and, in 1960, a total of 5,658 West end zone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large end zone,"Green Grass" section, this expansion increased capacity to about 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled-the first one in 1978 and the second in 1983. This increased capacity to over 80,000 which makes it one of the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the country.

The effect spiraling inflation has had in this century can be dramatically seen in the differences in stadium construction. The original part of the stadium was built at a cost of $125,000 or at $6.25 a seat. The newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 a seat.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley." It was tagged this by the late Presbyterian coach, Lonnie McMillan. After bringing his P.C. teams to Clemson for years and getting whipped, McMillan said the place was like Death Valley. A few years later the name stuck.

On November 16, 1974 the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach because of his long service and dedication to the University.

Luckily, the stadium wasn't built behind the Y.

If the game is close, maybe you'll slide to the edge of your seat as the kicker sets up for the extra point. Maybe.

But perhaps you don't realize just how important every point is to someone like Matthew.

Matthew knows everything there is to know about child abuse. He's seen it and he's felt it. He is an expert at hiding in the closet, under the bed and beneath the house. But for the first time in his life, Matthew is learning what it's like to be loved.

For every point Clemson scores this season, First Union will donate $25 to Helping Hands of Clemson, a non-profit organization of professionals and volunteers dedicated to helping and caring for a lot of children just like Matthew.

VICKERY HALL

Clemson University's commitment to provide its student-athletes with the very best of facilities is evident in many ways. From the soaring upper decks of Memorial Stadium, to the state-of-the-art strength training facility, young men and women from all 18 of Clemson's varsity sports have the very best in facilities for training and competition. Vickery Hall is no exception, as the $3 million structure is as impressive aesthetically as any of the other facilities. But the importance of Vickery Hall to the Clemson University Athletic Department is not found in the structure itself, but in the many programs that the building houses.

Vickery Hall opened in the spring of 1991 and is the only facility in the country built solely for the all-around education of student-athletes. The two-story, 27,000 square-foot building is open throughout the day and into the evening to accommodate the extended schedules of student-athletes.

The mission of the Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs is to monitor, guide, and encourage student-athletes to fulfill their long term goal, and to achieve their academic and career potential.

"Vickery Hall is one of the most important facilities the Clemson University Athletic Department has ever built or will ever build. It makes a philosophical statement about institutional commitment—giving our student-athletes the same opportunity to achieve their full potential academically that we give them athletically. We're very serious about that," said Athletic Director Bobby Robinson.

Vickery Hall focuses on five primary areas to meet the student-athlete's needs.

Academic Support

Clemson's Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs have provided one of the best academic support and advising programs in the nation.

The Academic Counselor performs a variety of duties to track academic progress. Their duties include providing assistance in registration and priority scheduling, contacting faculty, personally checking classes, recording information, counseling sessions with student-athletes, providing diagnostic testing, and directing career aspirations.

The academic support goals are to improve academic performance, assist student-athletes to become goal oriented, and promote all student-athletes to maintain good scholarship, and promote independence in the academic arena.

Tutoring

One of the most prestigious programs that has received recognition essential to the growth of Vickery Hall is the tutorial program.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Program has been granted a Level 1 certification from the College of Reading and Learning Association, International Tutor Certification Program. Of the one hundred programs certified by CRLA, the Clemson Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs is one of two student-athlete programs in the country to achieve this distinction.

Having tutor certification will enable student-athletes to be provided the highest quality of academic assistance possible. Approximately 80 tutors are hired to provide academic support in the many subject areas offered.

Computing Facilities

The Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs has recognized the need for students to have access to high-quality computing equipment and has made a commitment to provide the student-athletes at Clemson with the largest computer lab in the country. Located on the first floor of Vickery Hall is the Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs' Microcomputer Laboratory. The lab is open seven days a week, for 16 hours on Monday through Thursday, and limited time on Saturday and Sunday. During exam periods the lab hours are extended.

The lab staff consists of graduate students, many of whom are pursuing advanced degrees in computer science. Lab staff members are available for tutoring of any Computer Science course, as well as the many management, engineering and business courses that deal with personal computers. Student-athletes may also arrange tutoring sessions outside normal lab hours any time during the school year.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Program is committed to providing state-of-the-art computing facilities. Seventeen new computers have recently been purchased and an additional purchase of 15 new computers is slated for the next academic year. A new computer lab has been constructed and make a total of 40 computers available for student-athletes.

All computers feature comprehensive software packages that enable student-athletes to complete assignments successfully. All computers are fully connected to the internet allowing for access of computers throughout the world for research and communication.

Career Assistance Program

The Student-Athlete Career Assistance Program is one of the most important programs provided by the staff of Vickery Hall. The philosophy of this program is to provide student-athletes with job searching skills and strategies, internships, practicum experience as well as summer employment. These programs are designed to address specific career opportunities through a program that uses each year to gain information on the student-athletes.

By using the resources available to the University, Alumni Center and the Athletic Department, former Tiger gridders James Earle is working to establish a network of businesses, companies, and executives who will help assist with The Summer Employment Assistance Program. The program's main goal is to provide the student-athlete with job experience and a work history, which he or she can apply to his or her academic discipline.

The Long Term Career Assistance Program, also coordinated by Earle, will be coordinated from the academic colleges, the Placement Center, and through the Athletic Department contacts. This program is designed to better prepare the student-athlete for full-time employment and will focus on resume writing and interview techniques.

Personal Growth Program

Another aspect of Clemson University's commitment to help student-athletes reach their potential in all areas of their life—academically, athletically, and socially, is the personal growth program. This particular area of student development is designed to enhance and support the lives of student-athletes during their enrollment in college as well as in their life experiences after graduation.

The Vickery Hall Staff realizes that student-athletes have more obligations than a regular college student. The personal growth program seeks to eliminate some of the stresses of adjustment to the higher level of academics and athletics. It is the group's special task to assist the student-athlete by creating a finely tuned balance of all areas to ensure success in obtaining a Clemson University degree, by supporting successful athletic practice and competition, enhancing personal growth, and helping with the transition to life after college.

The purpose of the Personal Growth and Development Program is to assist the student-athlete in making a successful transition into his/her university and athletic life. These programs will provide the student-athlete the opportunity to examine and explore issues and topics pertaining to his/her values, personal health and wellness, behavior, and goals. The specific topics will encompass both general transition issues and specific athletic issues as well.

Vickery Hall is a 27,000 square foot facility built specifically for student-athlete enrichment. The Dick Hendley computer room is a major aspect of that building.

LEVON KIRKLAND

by James Brunson

What do Kathy Ireland, Cindy Crawford, and Levon Kirkland have in common? If you're like me, the similarities probably do not exactly jump out and grab you.

Clemson strength coach Gary Wade disagrees, however. "Levon Kirkland is a model. We still use him today as a model of what hard work and determination can do for someone in our program. He came in here at 6'1", 204 pounds and left at 6'2", 256 pounds." Kirkland now stands at 6'2", 263 pounds and is called the biggest inside linebacker in the NFL. He has gone from a raw 204-pound linebacker at Clemson to one of the leaders of the Pittsburgh Steelers Super Bowl team.

Although he was named to the North-South All-Star team as a senior at Lamar High School, Levon was not heavily recruited by many major college programs and was not chosen to any first-team all-state squads his junior or senior years of high school. "I think I was probably under-recruited because of my size and because I came from a small school," recalled Kirkland, who entered Clemson as a freshman in 1987.

Ironically, the small school may have been the reason that Kirkland was small in stature upon his arrival at Clemson. "My high school weight room had one machine, one bench, a squat rack, and that was basically it." The facilities at Clemson, and a redshirt year, gave him an opportunity to beef up. "I really hit the weight room hard that first year and by the time the next season started, I weighed 222."

Captain Kirk, as teammates jokingly called him, also had some new found confidence to go along with his extra weight. "I had also gained some confidence in my abilities over that season, mostly from watching Jesse Hatcher. Jesse was like me, he was in the shadows when he first came to Clemson, and then he just came out of nowhere."

Kirkland stepped out of the shadows in 1988 to place fifth on the team in tackles with 71, including a team leading 21 special teams stops. His best effort of the season came in the game that clinched a third straight ACC Championship at Maryland when he recorded 13 tackles, one sack, and one interception in a 49-25 Clemson win. His stellar performance in big games would become a trademark of his career.

Kirkland remained a consistent performer the remainder of his career at Clemson. His best game as a sophomore came in the Gator Bowl, where he had nine tackles, a sack, a pass-broken-up, a caused fumble, and three quarterback pressures against Major Harris and West Virginia. He was named the MVP of the game for his performance.

The accolades continued to roll in for Levon his final two seasons in Tigertown. In 1990, he was one of five finalists for the Butkus Award and was a first-team All-ACC selection by the AP and Football News. The 1991 season, the second ACC title for Clemson during Levon's career, ended with Kirkland being named a Kodak All-American, All-ACC for the second straight year, and one of 20 semi-finalists for the Lombardi Award.

In the spring of 1992, the Pittsburgh Steelers made Kirkland their second-round selection in the NFL draft, but he did not know if he was ready for the pros. "I wasn't sure if I could make it in the pros until I made a nice stop on the goal-line one day in practice my rookie year. That day I knew I belonged. I am still not where I want to be yet, but I am getting there."

Levon not only had to overcome career. It is a position that he has not relinquished since.

The highlight of Kirkland's professional career thus far came in last seasons Super Bowl against the Dallas Cowboys. "The Super Bowl was the best experience of my life. Bowl games at Clemson were fun, but nothing compares to the Super Bowl. The excitement that leads up to that game is amazing. The media attention is unbelievable, I must have done 100 interviews in those two weeks." Kirkland continued his trend of performing well in big games by contributing 11 tackles in the Steelers attempt to upset the Cowboys.

He continued his big game ability this year in a Monday Night Football victory over Buffalo. He had two interceptions in the contest, the first time he has done that, college or pro, and had 10 tackles to lead the Pittsburgh defense. One of the interceptions was an over the head catch. "He looked like Willie Mays," commented Frank Gifford during the broadcast.

Although he has officially made it in Pittsburgh, Levon has not forgotten South Carolina. "I spend about three months out of the year in Lamar." While there, he spends much of his time speaking to high schools and other groups around the community.

Levon attempted to return to Clemson during the Steelers open week this year, but after calling Coach Tommy West, his position coach at Clemson from 1987-89, found out that the Tigers were going to be at Missouri. "I told him that he was welcome to come, but he would be the only one in the stadium" said West.

"Levon Kirkland is the story of an overachiever," said West. "He had great athletic ability and great work habits. He had a great freshman year statistically, but some of his big plays were made when he was out of position. I'd be on the sideline yelling, 'no go over here', and about that time he would sack the quarterback because he had so much athletic ability. Once he learned where he was suppose to be he became an even more effective player and one of the keys to our success in that era."

"I keep up with Clemson," said Kirkland. "With Brentson Buckner and I both on the Steelers we are still close to the program and coach West. I will always feel close to Clemson because the experiences I had at Clemson were great. It has had a big impact on my life."

Kirkland is one of the rising stars of the Pittsburgh Steelers defense. He was a two-time All-American at Clemson in 1990 and 1991.

his doubts, but he also moved from outside linebacker, his position at Clemson, to inside linebacker. "The major difference is that you see more at outside linebacker, but all of the action comes to you at inside linebacker. I also have to call the defensive formations, which I did not do at Clemson."

Even with all of the changes, Kirkland found himself as the full time starter at inside linebacker only 17 months into his professional

CLEMSON MEN'S TRACK

By Jessica Reo

Expectations are high for this year's Clemson men's track team in all areas as the Tigers are being watched closely in the conference race for the ACC title. The 1996-97 Tigers can boast a gold medal winner from the 1996 Olympic Games and six returning All-Americans from a strong 1996 team.

"I think we will have another good year," said Clemson Head Coach Bob Pollock. "I believe our student-athletes have competed extremely well over the past years and are headed toward another banner year," says Pollock.

The 1996-97 squad is one that is made up of some of the most talented athletes that have come through the Clemson program. Carlton Chambers, 1996 gold medalist, Tony Wheeler, World Junior Champion, Jeremichael Williams, Shawn Thomas, Greg Hines, Aaron Haynes (All-Americans) Matt Helinski, Jason Reckner, Matt Tooman, Joe Harris, were all ACC Champions.

"If I look back at last year, we finished third in both indoor and outdoor and our expectations were to be contenders for the ACC Championship," says Coach Pollock. "When you have Tony Wheeler, Shawn Thomas, Josh Scott, Marcus Phillips, Matt Helinski — all as seniors, we have some good, talented upperclassmen that have all been winners. Now, we season them with an outstanding crop of juniors in Carlton Chambers, Jeremichael Williams, Greg Hines, Aaron Haynes, David Hartzler, Damian Dicola, and Andy Peterson along with a bright group of newcomers."

Esteban Diaz, a sophomore on the Clemson cross country squad, is the favorite to lead the young group of harriers and distance runners. Diaz, who had some strong finishes as a freshman during the cross country season, has taken over the leadership role at a young age, which will benefit the Tigers down the line. It took him the year to feel comfortable in the role, but by the '96 outdoor season, he was leading the Tigers in the 1,500m and was named the Tigers' Most Valuable Runner by the team.

Team captain Joe Harris is one of the oldest members of the young squad. He has been with the program three years and has garnered success with the team. The two additional juniors on the team are Trent Kirk and Jason Reckner, who both will add leadership, depth, and experience to both cross country and distance for Clemson. John McMillian, a transfer from Brevard College, was an All-American last year for his performances with Brevard, and hopes to have more than one repeat performance.

The 3,000m steeplechase will be led by Jason Reckner and John McMillian. The distance medley relay team, made up of Matt Tooman, Greg Hines, Jason Reckner, and Joe Harris, returned from the ACC Championships with both experience and an ACC title. The Tigers had their fastest time in the race at the championships and won it for the first time in the history of the program. This group should shuffle among the 3,000m, 5,000m, and 10,000m during indoor and outdoor competition.

The Tiger track team has one of the strongest groups in the hurdles and sprints this season. Returning are the ACC Champion 4x400m relay team, an Olympic gold medalist, and six All-Americans. Historically, the Tiger sprints and hurdles have been strong, and this year is no different.

Carlton Chambers returns for his junior season as a 1996 three-time All-American and a gold medalist from the 1996 Summer Olympic Games. Chambers, who ran for the Canadian National team, won a gold medal as a member of the 4x100m relay team. Senior Tony Wheeler is the Tigers seven-time All-American and World Junior 200m champion. Wheeler received All-American status as a member of the 4x400m relay team that finished eighth at the national championships and as the third-place finisher in the 200m dash NCAA finals.

Following in the shoes of 1995 national champion Duane Ross in the 110mHH are Jeremichael Williams and Greg Hines, who have national experience in the hurdles. Add to that the experience of the sprints, and it makes for a competitive edge for Clemson and the sprint program. "Aaron Haynes is a 400m hurdler national qualifier and a member of the All-American 4x400m relay team. It's a solid group of people in this area of hurdles and relays, top to bottom," says Pollock.

The signees look strong for Clemson as well. "Shawn Crawford should add to the sprints immediately. He has been a two-time state champion in the 100m and the 200m in South Carolina. He will run alongside Charles Allen, who made the World Junior National Canadian team, and the National Indoor Scholastic 200m champion," says Pollock.

The middle distance crew improves yet again, with the return of Esteban Diaz, Joe Harris, Jason Reckner, and Craig Klein in the 1500m position. William Arnold and Matt Tooman will add depth in the 1,500m as well as in the 800m area as they return with valuable experience from last year.

The supporting cast for the middle distance is made up of freshmen. Freshmen Shaun Murphy, Geoff Besso, and John McMillian, junior, who transferred from Brevard College, will all add depth to the 800m contests for the Tigers. "We will have youth at the 800m area, but we have experienced upperclassmen to add both quality and depth in these two events," says Pollock.

Matt Helinski has become one of the finest throwers in Clemson history, setting a record in the hammer, becoming the ACC Champion in the hammer, being named All-ACC in the shot put, and scoring in both the indoor shot put and the 35 lb. weight throw. Expectations are high for this senior, and leadership is key for the record-holder.

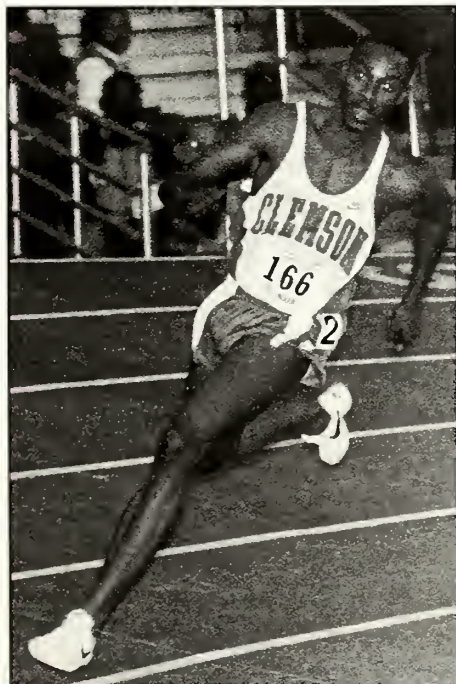

Andy Peterson returns as a strong thrower. Peterson finished fourth in the hammer during ACC competition and looks to build on that finish this year. Damian DiCola has also added depth to the throws as a premier javelin thrower.

Clemson's jump corp continues to strengthen with depth and quality having a veteran squad. The Tigers have Josh Scott, Marcus Phillips, Kenny Franklin, Jason Brewer, and Rudy Currie returning to the ranks of the '97 crew.

Scott, Brewer, and Currie have handled the high jump duties while Phillips and Franklin take control of the long and triple jump. Josh Scott jumped consistently 6'11 3/4" last year, while Brewer returns from a good freshman season at 6'9". Rudy Currie, a member of the football team, returns for his senior year having been a consistent and talented jumper.

Pole vaulter David Hartzler returns as the top vaulter for the Tigers. He has been very consistent as the runner-up in the ACC with a personal best of 16'9". Jason Tomsic and Dee Grist will also add depth in the pole vault. Tomsic placed in both indoor and outdoors at the ACC and looks to return in top fashion. Grist will also add quality as he too is a very good technical pole vaulter.

Josh Scott returns as the Tigers top decathlete after red-shirting last year. Scott was the runner-up in the decathlon at the 1995 ACC Outdoor Championships. Returning for his senior year, Chris Royster hopes to improve upon his sixth place finish in the decathlon at the ACC Championships.

Tony Wheeler is a returning All-American who should help make Clemson a Top 20 team once again in 1996-97.

1996 College Football Alliance

The Bowl Alliance was formed in 1995 to create a mechanism for providing college football fans with the best possible bowl games, including a game between the two top-ranked college football teams, when possible, and to maximize the number of opportunities for a variety of high quality bowl game matchups.

The FedEx Orange, Nokia Sugar and Tostitos Fiesta bowls have joined with the Atlantic Coast, The Big East Football, Big 12, Big Ten, Pacific 10 and Southeastern conferences and the University of Notre Dame to form the Alliance.

The champions of the Atlantic Coast, Big East Football, Big 12 and Southeastern conferences will appear in one of the aforementioned bowl games following the 1996 regular season. The remaining two at-large positions may be filled by the champion of the Western Athletic Conference or any other Division I-A college football teams eligible for postseason competition including those teams from the Big Ten and Pacific 10, not committed to the Rose Bowl, if they meet one of the following requirements:

- 1) has won at least 8 college football games during the most recently completed regular season; not to include wins in either the Pigskin and/or Kickoff Classic.

- 2) is ranked among the Top 12 bowl eligible teams in either the AP or the CNN/USA Today final regular season polls.

- 3) is ranked no lower in either the AP or the CNN/USA Today Poll than the lowest ranked team selected by a Bowl from the Conference Champions.

In the event that two or more teams tie for the championship of the Atlantic Coast or The Big East Football conferences the conference tie breaking procedures will be followed.

The Alliance pairings will be announced on the CBS selection show, December 8, at 5:30 p.m. The selection order shall be as follows:

Selections 1 and 2 Nokia Sugar Bowl
Selections 3 and 5 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl
Selections 4 and 6 FedEx Orange Bowl

Mandatory 1 vs. 2 Pairing

The Nokia Sugar Bowl shall select any team ranked number No. 1 in the AP Poll and any team ranked number No.1 in the CNN/USA Today Poll if the teams so ranked are different and two such teams are available. In any other case, the Nokia Sugar Bowl shall select any team ranked number 1 in either the AP Poll or the CNN/USA Today Poll and any team ranked number 2 in either the AP Poll or the CNN/USA Today Poll if two teams so ranked are available. All other team selections shall come from the pool of teams specified above and will be at the discretion of the participating bowls.

TONY DeSUE

by Brett Berg

Homecoming. A time for parades, pageantry, and pep rallies. A time for Clemson alumni to return to campus and reminisce. A time for current students and faculty to join with those returning and celebrate together the spirit and tradition that lives in Clemson. A time to enjoy a crisp fall afternoon and a football game in Death Valley.

It is a time for Clemson outside linebacker Tony DeSue to do all of the above. You see, Tony is not only a member of this year's Tiger football team, he is a current student, as well as a Clemson alumnus. He could be welcomed at student pep rallies, alumni banquets, and by driving a Yellow Jacket into the turf.

You see Tony DeSue has the ability to do all of this, because he truly is an athlete, a gentleman, and a scholar. He can look back at his past accomplishments in the Orange and Purple, as well as forward to his future in both the classroom and on the gridiron.

Tony has been able to mix athletics and academics very well, by playing for the Tigers on the football field for the last three seasons, and earning his undergraduate degree last Spring. "As far as school goes, Billy D (Bill D'Andrea) and the whole administration at Vickery Hall helped me work hard and look to see where I was going," said DeSue. He has hit some pot-holes on his road to success, however, but has handled them with class and perseverance.

Now in his first year of graduate school at Clemson, after graduating last May with a degree in marketing, DeSue carries with him wisdom of a seasoned veteran. He can offer the other players on the team advice and a peek at what it takes to reach the pinnacle of scholastic achievement—graduation.

"You have to work hard and keep your cool, to stay with your school work," says DeSue of mixing academics with athletics. "You have to learn how to balance academics and athletics, and I like to be a good example to some of the other guys. I'm in grad school now, and just to show them that it can be done, that it is really not that hard, you just have to put your mind to it."

And put his mind to it he has, by earning a 3.5 grade point average in his first semester in graduate school this past summer. He hopes to finish up in August with a Master's degree in Human Resource and Development. According to DeSue the biggest difference between undergraduate and graduate studies, and trying to fit it all in with practice and traveling, is his schedule. "With grad school, the time for classes is a lot different, my classes are now at nighttime. That leaves the days as pretty much the only time to go to the library and do my research, before I go to practice."

That leaves the afternoons for practice, and the evenings for class, which does not make for much free time. Some days he must miss the last 10 minutes of practice to head to class. "I really do not miss too much of practice, I miss the end part, as in conditioning," says Tony. "I try to make it up in the weight room when I go work out." You could say he has made it up, all right. He ranks in the top 10 in eight different strength and conditioning areas for the Tiger football team, including first in chin-ups. He did 40 chin-ups in one minute, the second best total ever by a Tiger football player.

Coming into Clemson, DeSue was a highly touted tailback coming out of the state of Virginia. A high-school All-American according to BlueChip, Max Emfinger, Tom Lemming, came as he only participated in four plays from scrimmage that year. After a promising red-shirt-freshman year, he was disappointed to see a decrease in his playing time, but he stuck with it.

Then as a red-shirt junior, DeSue hit another challenge. He was asked to move over to the outside linebacker position. He had not played on the defensive side of the ball since high school. Yet, Tony took it in stride and made the adjustment to defense. After practicing only four weeks on the defensive side of the ball, Tony finally had his first start against Western Carolina in the season opener in 1995. But, after playing in the first two games, seeing action on 50 plays, and recovering a fumble against Florida State, Tony broke a finger in practice and was forced to sit out the next two games. DeSue came back strong to play in the rest of the games, participating in 130 total plays that year.

Now, after earning his undergraduate degree and learning his role as an outside linebacker, hopefully Tony will find the road freshly paved and a smooth ride ahead. After making a touchdown saving tackle on a punt return earlier this year against North Carolina, and playing in 46 plays over the first three games this season, Tony has proved himself already this year. By overcoming adversity and driving on through all the pot-holes, Tony has proved how much class he actually has.

"He's really an unselfish person," said Clemson defensive coordinator and outside linebacker coach Ellis Johnson. "For him to be a fifth-year guy and have the attitude he's got has really been good for our football team. He is smart and plays with a lot of heart. We have some young outside linebackers and he is really a good influence on them on and off the field."

In staying with his gentleman's persona, who do you think he credits with all his success? His parents. Coming originally out of Pensacola, Florida and traveling with a military family, DeSue learned how reassuring a family can be. In times of doubt or when times got tough, Tony's mother would always send her son a letter of encouragement with some words of hope and a Bible verse. Just enough to give Tony the lift he needed. "I've been brought up that when things aren't working out, you don't run away," he said. "You stick things out. Because one day, if you're doing the right thing, it's going to work out for you."

And with a degree under one arm, an advanced degree in the making, and a career of football memories, things certainly did work out for Tony.

Tony DeSue made his family proud when he earned his degree last May. The Tiger outside linebacker has overcome many injuries in his Clemson career.

and SuperPrep, DeSue ran for 3,756 yards and 42 touchdowns in three seasons at Kempsville High School in Virginia Beach. SuperPrep ranked him the second best athlete in the country coming out of high school.

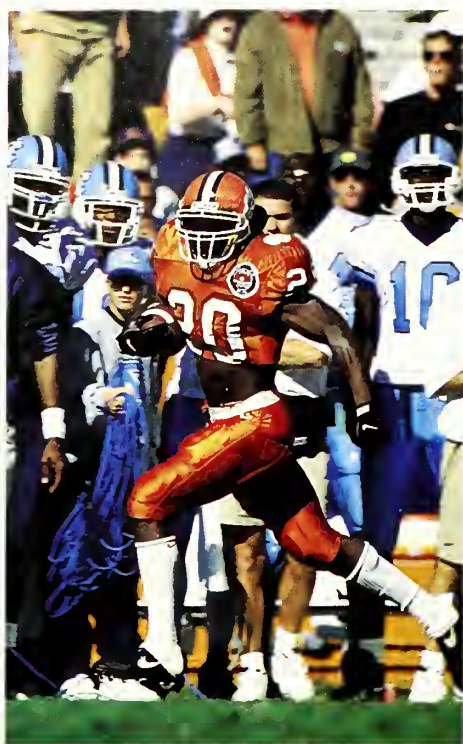

His tailback days at Clemson were short-lived, however. After a stellar performance in the 1993 Orange and White spring game, where he led all rushers with 76 yards on 14 attempts, he was forced into a backup roll. The first of the pot-holes came his way as he cracked two ribs and reinjured his knee that he originally hurt in a high school all-star game. Despite the setback's, DeSue played in all 11 games in 1993, seeing action in 49 plays and on special teams, and garnered his first career touchdown against Maryland.

As a red-shirt sophomore, Tony appeared in all 11 games again, but this time almost exclusively on special teams. The next road block

Building a National University

Clemson University has a long-standing tradition as the state's premier research institution. Clemson ranks in the top 100 research universities nationally, and in the top 15 universities in terms of income generated from patents and licenses developed through research. Now, Clemson faculty are generating national attention through research that, while focused on the needs of South Carolina, will have an impact far beyond the state's borders. The researchers pictured here, and colleagues too numerous to mention, are helping Clemson build a reputation as a national university.

Through High- Impact Research

clockwise:

Microbiologist Susan Barefoot is working to identify a gene that serves as a natural food preservative and could improve food safety.

Bioengineer Robert LaTour, working with a team from the Greenville Hospital System, has developed and patented a nail that can repair breaks in the upper thigh bone.

Landscape architect Lolly Tai is helping demonstrate the concept of Xeriscaping, or dry landscaping, in communities where water is a precious commodity.

Environmental systems engineer Thomas Overcamp is helping to test the nation's first transportable vitrification unit for treating hazardous and mixed waste.

Civil engineer Serji Amirkhanian is researching ways to recycle used tires, asphalt shingle scraps and construction debris in road-paving materials.

IPTAY

IPTAY is widely regarded as the father of Athletic Fundraising. It all started in 1934 and from a private meeting of a small group of Clemson supporters has sprung an organization that raised over $8 million last year. The organization plays a major role in ensuring that all 18 of the varsity sports at Clemson are given the maximum amount of scholarships offered by the NCAA.

The organization also has helped finance facilities that help student-athletes on and off the field. Vickery Hall, is a 27,000 square foot facility that houses the tutoring and advising programs for student-athletes. It is a major reason Clemson student-athletes have had their highest cumulative GPA on record for three consecutive semesters.

While IPTAY is primarily concerned with athletic fundraising, the mission of Clemson University has not been overlooked. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Endowment was created to help meet the need for more academic scholarships for non-athletes who are highly qualified academically. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Fund is presently the largest scholarship endowment of its kind at Clemson, providing $2.8 million in funds, currently helping 34 students at Clemson.

IPTAY Executive Director George Bennett has continued to keep Clemson among the best in the nation in terms of fund-raising by the establishment of the IPTAY Endowment Program. In April of 1994, he kicked off the beginning of the endowment of positions program at the 85th birthday celebration for former Clemson Coach Frank Howard. The endowments are secure with a $100,000 donation paid over a five-year period.

"This is a chance to broaden the horizons of IPTAY," said Executive Director of IPTAY George Bennett. "It gives an individual or a group of people an opportunity to endow a position that meant something during their college playing days, or to honor a person at a position. The money being endowed is going to secure our future as the interest is used to carry on our program forever."

"Fans interested in seeing IPTAY and Clemson athletics succeed down the road now have the perfect means to do that. They can create endowments that can't be touched whereby, only the support will continue. Thus this is a way to ensure that the programs they are in favor of are continued. It has been institutionalized at several colleges and it seemed to be a natural thing to do at Clemson. We have the people who are very supportive and willing to take part."

The first endowment was for the head football coach position to honor the legendary Frank Howard. Howard coached football at Clemson 39 years, 30 as the head coach. During his tenure the Tigers won 165 games, 100 of which were against conference foes. "Former players and friends of Coach Howard made donations over the cost of attending the celebration program and that was enough for the endowment. Their gifts were a way of permanently thanking Coach Howard for all that he did for Clemson."

"Following Coach Howard's birthday party we began to look for an individual to help us support and promote the program and Bill Hudson's name came up. He was an outstanding player at Clemson who has been equally successful in the business world. We went to him and explained the program and its goals and that we were looking for his leadership to help get the program going and he accepted."

Hudson responded favorably. "Clemson has been good to our family and I have been fortunate in business, which allowed me to be involved in this program," said the former Clemson tackle. "Two of my brothers, my son, and I came to Clemson on a scholarship. The entire family is grateful so I put the endowment of the tackle position in the family's name."

Bill Hudson, a 1956 graduate, was a three-year letter winner at tackle who played professionally for the Montreal Alouettes, the San Diego Chargers, and the Boston Patriots. He earned Pro Bowl honors in 1962. His brother Bob was also a lineman at Clemson who lettered four straight years and played over 10 years professionally.

"We have a foundation in academics and it is something special to get a letter of thanks from a student who received a scholarship through our donation," said Bill. "That's a great feeling so we were willing to do a similar thing for the athletic department. The permanency of this is what makes it so important, it will be around much longer than I am. Future generations of my family will be able to enjoy and contribute to our endowment."

Mr. Hudson sees this program growing into a large part of Clemson's athletic funding. "When other people see information on the endowment program and learn what it is about this program will grow. Success builds on success. People who are looking to honor a friend or family member now have a great means to do that."

Besides the Hudson's family endowment four other football endowments were made and one managers position in the first year. Now there are over 15 positions endowed. The goal of the program is to get every position endowed. "From the free safety to the number three player in women's tennis, we hope to have every position endowed," said Bennett. "We will likely use the Avenue of Champions as a physical place to honor these people further for the positions they have endowed. That will have plenty of space, so we will be working to have as many endowments across all of our sports."

"The personal satisfaction that they helped Clemson University, specifically the Athletic department, and that they are securing its future are the main reasons for becoming involved."

And with more involvement Clemson will have a very secure future for generations to come.

CENTENNIAL ALL-STARS

By Emily Rabon

Each program this year we are honoring the members of the Clemson Centennial Team. The squad was announced last April and honored this year on September 7 when Clemson met Furman. This week's cover by artist Michael Taylor features the careers of noted Clemson gridders of the past 100 years who came to Clemson from the state of Georgia. Three of the five players listed were All-Americans at Clemson, including Chris Gardocki and Stacy Long who were two-time selections as teammates in 1989 and 1990.

Terry Allen, Running Back, 1987-89:

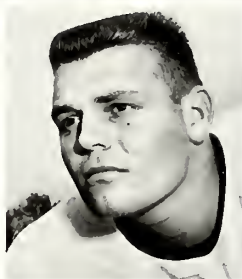

Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie-of-the-Year in 1987, the first freshman in Clemson history to earn this honor...also first freshman in 10 years to lead conference in rushing with 973 yards and eight touchdowns in 11 games (1987)... first-team All-ACC in 1988...in 1988, rushed for 1,139 yards and 10 touchdowns on 199 carries, the third highest single-season total in Clemson history...runner up as Conference Player-of-the-Year in 1988...Player-of-the-Game in the 13-6 victory over Oklahoma in the 1989 Citrus Bowl, he led Clemson in rushing and receiving that day and scored the game's only touchdown...number-two all time rusher in Clemson history with 2,778 yards, just 137 yards shy of his goal...third in Clemson history in rushing touchdowns (28) and fifth in total carries with 523...168 total career points, which tied him for sixth in the Clemson record books for total points... he did that in just three seasons...drafted his junior year by the Minnesota Vikings, and now playing with the Washington Redskins...led the NFC in rushing heading into game's of last week and has a streak of 10 straight games with at least one touchdown, one of the top five streaks in NFL history.

Jeff Bryant, Defensive Tackle, 1978-81:

Second-team All-American on Clemson's National Championship team ...still has sixth best single season tackles for loss mark with 19 in the 1981 season ...led the National Championship team in sacks and tackles for loss...first-team All-ACC that year...still ranks in top 10 in Clemson history in career sacks and tackles for loss...will always be remembered for his fumble recovery at North Carolina in 1981 late in the fourth period of Clemson's 10-8 victory that kept the National Championship hopes alive...the recovery came with just 57 seconds left in the game...first-round pick of the Seattle Seahawks in the 1982 draft, he was the number-six pick of the entire draft, third highest draft pick by a Clemson player in history...with Seahawks from 1982-93 and is second in Seahawk's history in career sacks...will enter the Clemson Hall of Fame on November 2, 1996.

Harold Olson, Tackle, 1957-59:

Named All-Atlantic Coast Conference in 1959, after recovering from injuries that plagued him most of the previous season...also named All-State and All-American by Time magazine...played in the 1959 Sugar Bowl and the 1959 Bluebonnet Bowl, when Clemson defeated TCU 23-7... played in the Blue-Gray Game and the All-American game in 1959...strong player who was a star on both sides of the line of scrimmage...second-round draft pick for the Buffalo Bills and the St. Louis Cardinals...played three seasons with the Buffalo Bills (where he was teammate of Jack Kemp), and two seasons with the Denver Broncos...earned All-Pro honors with Buffalo in 1962.

Stacy Long, Offensive Tackle, 1986-90:

Consensus first-team All-American his senior year, he was a first-team Sporting News All-American as a junior ...one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy in 1990, only the second Clemson player to do so...first-team All-ACC performer for two years...had 141 knockdown blocks in his career, a record for an offensive tackle...two-time ACC Player-of-the-Week in 1990, he was a six-time choice in his career, more than any other Tiger lineman in history...one of the reasons Clemson won 40 games between 1987 and 1990, the fourth best record in college football...Clemson ranked in the top 15 in the nation in rushing each year he was a starter...11th-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears in 1991, injuries prevented him from playing in the pros...earned his degree from Clemson two years ago.

Chris Gardocki, Placekicker, 1988-90:

Second-team All-American as a junior and a third-team All-America choice as a sophomore place-kicker...an honorable mention choice at punter as well by UPI as a freshman, sophomore and junior ...ranked fourth in punting and tied for fourth in placekicking in the nation as a junior...second player in the NCAA to finish in the Top 10 in both categories in the same season, the first to do it twice...tied ACC record for longest field goal with a 57-yarder against Appalachian State in 1990...had a pair of four-field-goal games in 1990...recorded 72 consecutive PATs to set Clemson record, he never missed one in his Clemson career...had 20 multiple field goal games in his Clemson career...tied Obed Arii's career record for total field goals with 63...third-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears in 1991, now playing with the Indianapolis Colts where he is among the NFL's top punters...

Allens' Creations, Inc. - Frame & Art Gallery - in Clemson sadly announces the unexpected death of artist Bill Stroud on July 6, 1996. Mr. Stroud, of Cayce, S.C., was 46 years old.

On April 1, 1996 a cooperative effort between Allens' Creations, Inc., Mr. Stroud, Clemson University, and the Walker Course led to the release of "The Tiger Paw Hole - #17 The Walker Course At Clemson University." This is the ONLY "officially authorized" and licensed limited edition print of the signature hole on the new golf course at Clemson. At the time of his death, Mr. Stroud had signed only 700 of the 1000 copies of "The Tiger Paw Hole."

Mr. Stroud's first Clemson print release was "On a Clear Day" featuring Tillman Hall in the winter. The remaining copies of "The Tiger Paw Hole" and "On A Clear Day" will be sold on a first-come first-served basis. Please call for availability and current prices.

To view other Clemson prints you can call or write for color brochures - or you can check out our Internet web site at <http://www.allenscreations.com>. You can e-mail your questions or comments to: aci@innova.net.

STADIUM EMERGENCIES

The Clemson University Athletic Department provides the following for your safety and emergency medical needs:

1. Advanced cardiac life-support stations in four locations (North stands, upper North deck, South stands, Upper South deck). These units are staffed with skill-care nurses, physicians, cardiologists, internists, paramedics, and EMTs.
2. Mobile units of EMTs and paramedics are strategically located throughout the entire stadium.
3. Ambulances with life-support equipment are available in North stand and South stand areas and have prearranged routes for evacuation to local hospitals.

Learn to recognize these personnel and facilities.

WHAT TO DO IF EMERGENCIES ARISE:

Please step back and give the organized EMS personnel room to work. Well-intentioned attempts to help by untrained persons interfere with the efficiency of the EMS system. If you have basic or advanced training in specific life-support methods, make your qualifications known and offer your help. Untrained personnel can frequently be more harmful than helpful.

Most emergencies occurring at the stadium result from pre-existing medical conditions. Bring your medical identification card or wear medical identification jewelry. Moderation is the key with dress, food, beverage intake, and physical exertion. The two most frequent medical problems at football games are allergic reactions to insect stings and heart attacks.

INSECT STINGS:

Common at outdoor events. Treat immediately with ice and seek medical advice. If allergic, carry a kit from your physician with you.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE A HEART ATTACK:

The symptoms of a heart attack vary, but the usual warning signs are:

1. Uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of your chest lasting for two minutes or more.
2. Pain spreading to the shoulders, neck, jaw, arms, or back.
3. Dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea, and/or shortness of breath.

EXPECT A DENIAL

Frequently heart attack victims deny they are having a heart attack. The event is frightening or they don't want the embarrassment of a false alarm. Therefore, they delay getting help by ignoring their symptoms or rationalizing, "It's just indigestion."

Find out what's really wrong. Prompt response can dramatically increase chances of survival and recovery.

New therapies have been developed that can minimize heart damage and save lives if treatment begins within the first few hours of symptom onset. "Time is muscle." Get help or get to a hospital immediately.

CLEMSON TRADITIONS

Death Valley

Name synonymous with Clemson Memorial Stadium. The Stadium was dubbed this affectionate title by the late Lonnie McMillan, a former coach at Presbyterian. He used to take his teams to play at Clemson, and they rarely scored, never mind gained a victory. Once he told the writers he was going to play Clemson up at Death Valley because his teams always got killed. It stuck somewhat, but when Frank Howard started calling it that in the fifties, the term really caught on. It is now in its 55th year.

Many people think the name is derived from the fact that there rests a cemetery outside the fence on the pressbox side of the stadium. But, although it would make sense, the name was first coined by Lonnie McMillan.

First Friday Parade

The Clemson football season kicks off each year with the annual First Friday Parade. The once a year event takes place on the Friday afternoon prior to the first home football game. Floats from various fraternities and sororities and other campus organizations are represented in the parade that rolls down main street in Clemson. The parade culminates at the Amphitheatre in the middle of campus where the first Pep Rally of the year takes place.

The Grand Marshall of the Parade is featured at the Pep Rally. Recent Grand Marshalls have ranged from current PGA professional Dillard Pruitt, to College Football Hall of Fame legends Jess Neely and Frank Howard, to noted television announcers Brent Musburger and Ara Parseghian.

Homecoming

Clemson holds a classic homecoming every year. Displays by fraternities and sororities that are months in the making, are built on Bowman Field the week prior to the Homecoming Weekend. It is an event that draws alumni and friends of Clemson from all over the country.

The Friday evening prior to the game, Tigerama is held in Death Valley, an event that attracts over 35,000 fans. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in addition to Homecoming skits, a pep rally and a large and loud fireworks display.

The first homecoming game played at

"Death valley really lives up to its image. I was impressed with this stadium. When you put 80,000 people in here, it really feels like they are on top of you. I would hate to be Georgia Tech or whoever else comes in here."

Steve Young, San Francisco 49ers

Clemson took place on September 30, 1922 when Clemson met Centre. Clemson has a 52-17-3 record on Homecoming games over the years, a .742 winning percentage and has outscored the opposition 1519-930 in those previous 71 games. The average margin of victory is 21 to 12. Clemson has been especially successful on Homecoming in recent years, posting a 22-1-2 record since 1970.

Orange Pants

The tradition of the Clemson team wearing orange pants is new according to tradition standards. The Tigers first wore the all orange uniform for the final game of the 1980 season against South Carolina. Clemson upset the 14th ranked Gamecocks and Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers, 27-6. The victory set the stage for Clemson's National Championship run of 1981.

Overall, Clemson is 29-6 in Orange pants since that 1980 game, including a 16-1 record in games played in the month of November. The Tigers have won seven in a row in orange pants, including last year's important victory over North Carolina. Clemson has nine wins over top 20 opponents when wearing Orange pants, including the 22-15 National Championship clinching win over Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl.

Howard's Rock

When the Clemson team gathers to Run Down the Hill the players rub Howard's Rock

Clemson players have been rubbing Howard's Rock prior to running down the hill since 1967.

because of the mystical powers it is supposed to give Clemson players. The rock is mounted on a pedestal at the top of the hill and was given to Coach Frank Howard by a friend (S.C. Jones' 19) who picked it up in Death Valley, CA. The Rock was first placed on the pedestal at the top of the hill on September 24, 1966, a game Clemson won 40-35 over Virginia. The team started rubbing the rock for the first game of 1967, a 23-6 win over Wake Forest on September 23, 1967.

Running Down the Hill

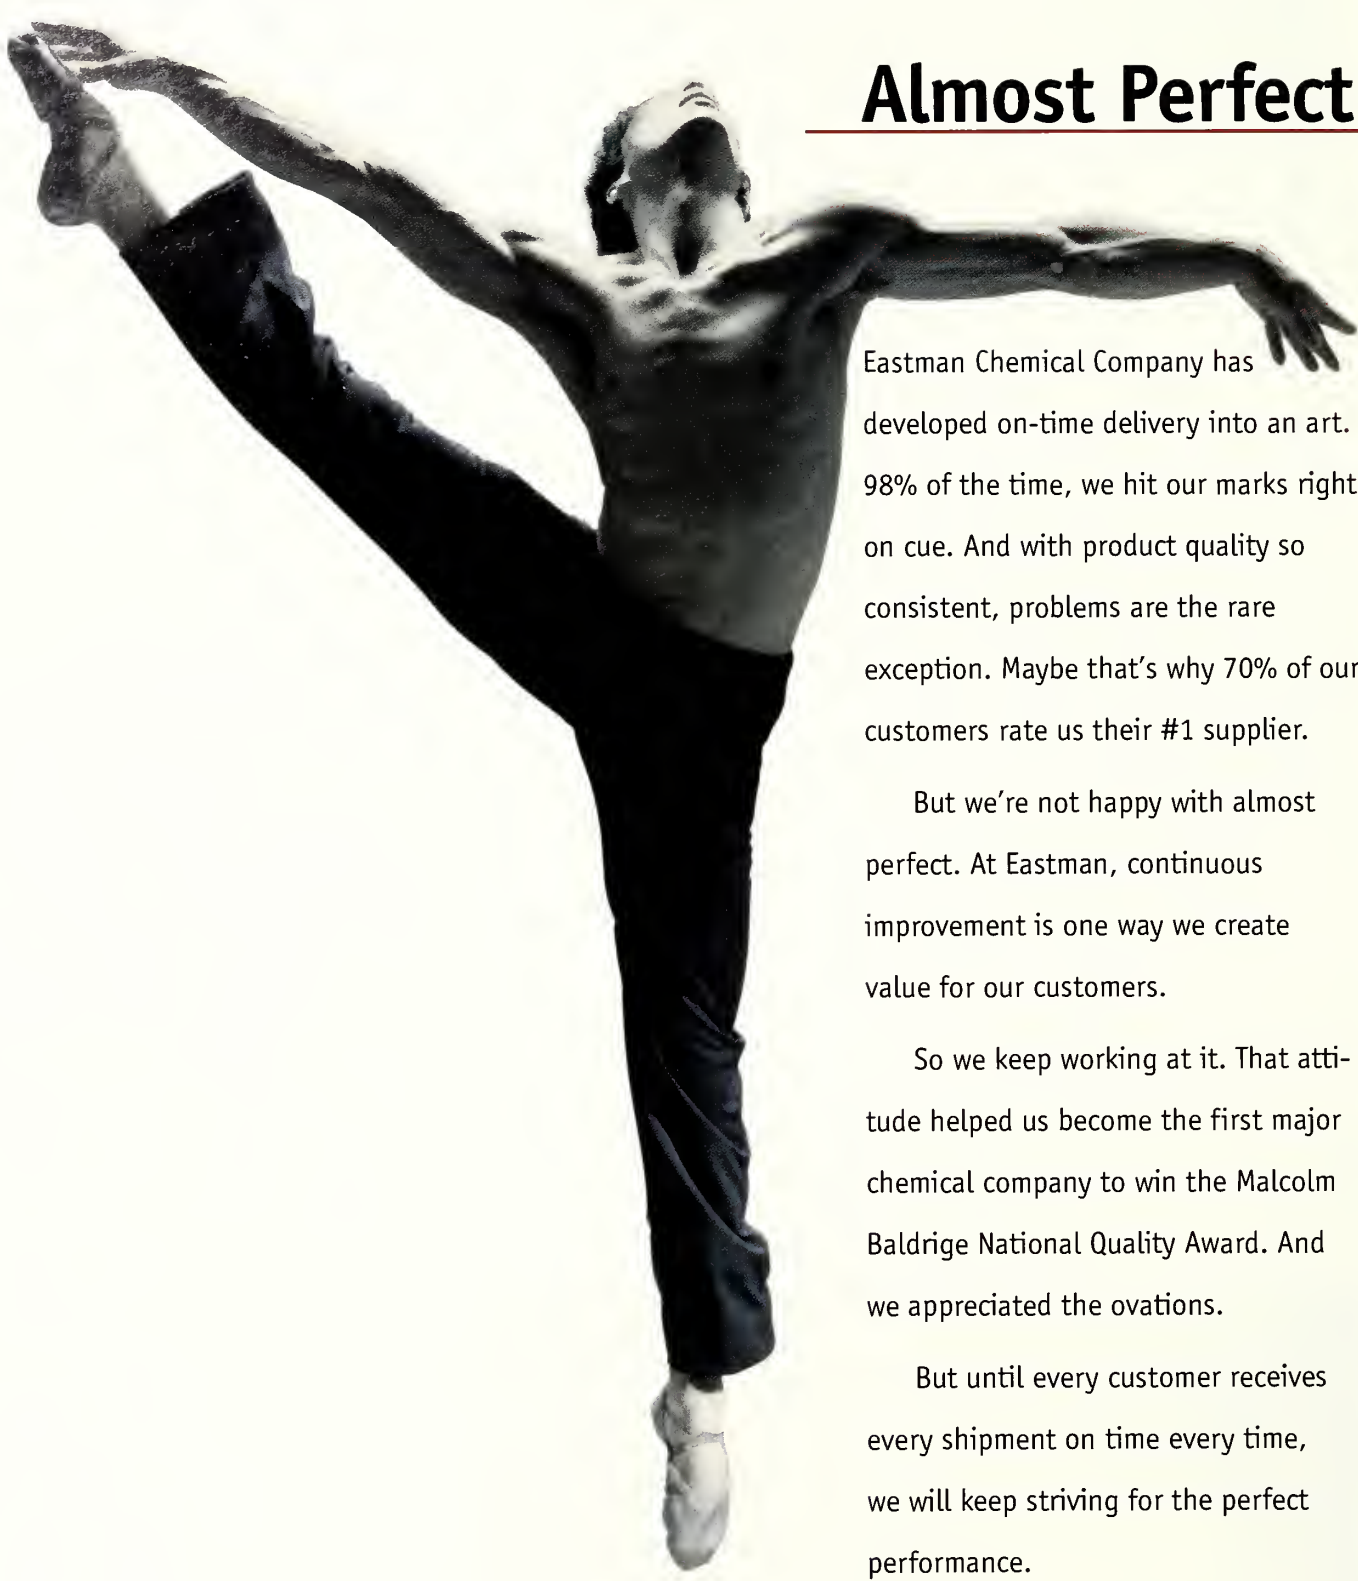

One of the most exciting 25 seconds (about 35 seconds when Clemson dresses 120 players for homecoming) in college football from a color and pageantry standpoint. After Clemson's last warmup the team retreats to the home dressing room located under the West Stands. At about 12:50 (for normal 1:00 P.M. game), the team boards two buses and drives around the periphery of the stadium to the east side of the field. After everyone is properly collected, the cannon sounds, Tiger Rag is played and Clemson charges down the hill (exactly 100 feet top to bottom) and onto the field. It is one of the most celebrated entrances in sport. The Tigers have done it for every game since 1942, except for 1970, 1971 and four games of the 1972 season. In all, the Tigers have run down the hill 249 times heading into 1996.

How in the world did the tradition of running down the hill start? There is no long involved explanation, it used to be the quickest way to get to the field. When the stadium was built in 1942 the football locker-rooms were up the street in Fike Fieldhouse.

When the players were finished getting dressed they used to walk out the front door and walk down the street to "The Hill". Coach Howard continued the tradition when locker-rooms were finally built inside the stadium because Clemson fans used to get so fired up when they gathered at the top of the hill. That's when the buses came into use to spend the trip from the lockerroom to the other side of the stadium.

Running down the Hill is one of the greatest stadium entrances in all of sports

Almost Perfect

Eastman Chemical Company has developed on-time delivery into an art. 98% of the time, we hit our marks right on cue. And with product quality so consistent, problems are the rare exception. Maybe that's why 70% of our customers rate us their #1 supplier.

But we're not happy with almost perfect. At Eastman, continuous improvement is one way we create value for our customers.

So we keep working at it. That attitude helped us become the first major chemical company to win the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award. And we appreciated the ovations.

But until every customer receives every shipment on time every time, we will keep striving for the perfect performance.

Let your friends at Eastman demonstrate the art of service and quality.

ALL-TIME OPPONENT'S TEAM

By Foster Senn

One hundred years of Tiger football has seen Clemson become one of the great homes for college football in the country. It is a place where good football is appreciated, from not only the Tigers, but the opponents as well, and over the years Clemson has played against some of the best to play the game.

In recognition of the Centennial celebration, we asked the question, "Who are the greatest individual opponents to perform against the Tigers?" To narrow the scope a little more, we compiled a list of the 12 top opponents to play at Clemson Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1942.

The list is a "Who's Who" of football history, including five Heisman Trophy winners, but the opponents' performances at Death Valley have varied. Some have added to their legacies. Some have been slowed by gallant Tiger efforts. All have added to the rich history of Memorial Stadium.

How many of these great players did you see?

When Joe Montana led Notre Dame into Clemson on November 12, 1977, it was possibly the most eagerly anticipated game in Clemson history. Notre Dame, loaded with 15 players who would eventually make All-American at some point in their career, and 26 future NFL players, was ranked fifth and aiming for a national championship. Clemson, led by Steve Fuller and Jerry Butler, was suddenly resurgent in football with its best team in 18 years and ranked 15th heading into the game.

The Tigers jumped out to a 10-7 halftime lead, thrilling the crowd of 54,189 (sans upper decks). Meanwhile, the Tiger defense, with players like Mark Heniford having outstanding games, was holding Montana in check, limiting him to three completions in nine attempts in the first half. When the Tiger's Lester Brown scored a third-quarter touchdown, Clemson led 17-7 and the ecstatic Tiger crowd dreamed of a monumental upset. Little did the Tiger faithful know they were up against a player who would become the greatest comeback quarterback in NFL history.

Montana, a junior, had captured the starting quarterback job with a comeback win over Purdue earlier in the year. Clemson would become another of his many comeback victims. Down 17-7, he methodically led Notre Dame on an 84-yard touchdown drive, going the last yard himself on the first play of the 4th quarter. The drive actually covered 119 yards of total offense due to unsportsmanlike penalties against Irish Coach Dan Devine. After a Tiger turnover, Montana led the Irish down the field again to move the Irish into scoring position. As the sell-out crowd roared for the defense, Montana snuck in two yards for the final touchdown with 7:41 left, giving the Irish a 21-17 lead and eventual victory.

Montana was impressed with the Tigers. "Clemson is quick and tough," he said. "I expected a tough game, and that's just what we got." Years later in an interview he called Death Valley the toughest place he had played in during his college career.

Later that year, Montana led the Irish to the national championship with a win over Texas in the Cotton Bowl. He would duplicate his comeback heroics on many Saturday and Sunday afternoons to come.

By Herschel Walker's sophomore season, some sportswriters had decided the "All-American" label wasn't good enough for Walker. "All-World" was his new moniker. After leading Georgia to the 1980 national championship as a freshman, Walker led 4th-ranked Georgia into Clemson on September 19, 1981 with a 14-game undefeated streak and an astounding 164-yards per game rushing average.

However, Walker's Saturday in Clemson was one of his hardest days as a collegian, in fact, his only regular season loss in his entire career. Up against a ferocious Tiger defense, he fumbled twice, losing the ball to Clemson's Jeff Suttle and William Perry. Although Walker gained 111 yards, he never threatened to break one of his famous long runs, averaging only 3.8 yards per carry on his 28 attempts. On the day, the Tiger defense forced a record nine Bulldog turnovers, leading the way to a 13-3 Clemson victory, a game pivotal in Clemson's march to the 1981 National Championship.

The list of Clemson heroes who slowed Walker that day was long, with Jeff Davis leading the way with 11 tackles. "Clemson played a super game," Walker said. "Their defense came hard and hit hard."

Walker went on to win the 1982 Heisman Trophy.

George Rogers was on his way to winning the 1980 Heisman Trophy when he led heavily-favored South Carolina against Clemson on November 22, 1980. Although Rogers gained 168 yards on 28 carries, he and the Gamecock offense were controlled by the Tiger defense, never scoring a touchdown in a 27-6 Tiger victory. Rogers was upstaged by Clemson hero Willie Underwood, who made two long interception returns to lead the Tigers to victory, and was named National Defensive Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated.

The ineffectiveness of Rogers and Walker against Clemson in the same era led to a great Tiger football trivia question. What do Herschel Walker and George Rogers have in common? Neither ever reached the Clemson end zone.

Sophomore Doug Flutie didn't resemble a future Heisman Trophy winner in the first half of the Clemson/Boston College game on September 18, 1982 at Memorial Stadium. Harassed by a strong Tiger pass rush, Flutie threw two interceptions as Clemson moved out to a 14-0 lead.

In the second half, however, Flutie showed the ability that would win him the 1984 Heisman Trophy. Escaping the Clemson pass rush with his unique scrambling ability, Flutie led the Eagles to 17 second half points, including a 15-yard TD pass to Jon Schoen. The Tigers and Eagles "kissed their sisters" that day as the game ended in a 17-17 tie.

For the game, Flutie completed 18 of 35 passes for 242 yards, but it was his scrambling Montana (at far left) went on to win four Super Bowl titles, thanks in part to Clemson's Dwight Clark. The two played against each other in Death Valley in 1977.

Clemson kept Walker out of the endzone in 1981, his only regular season loss as a Georgia Bulldog.

ability that made an impression with Clemson lineman William Perry. "He just kept squirming out of trouble," Perry said.

Roman Gabriel, N.C. State's All-America quarterback, wrapped up his outstanding career at Memorial Stadium on November 25, 1961. His finale was far from grand, however, as the Tiger defense held Gabriel to a miserable performance. Gabriel, who completed 57% of his passes during his career, completed 6 of 17 passes against the Tigers for just 11 yards. That's right, 11 yards. With stand-out play from Tigers like Gary Barnes and Elmo Lam, the Tigers dominated for a 20-0 victory.

"We just couldn't get going," said Gabriel, now a radio commentator for the Carolina Panthers, who actually spent the 1995 NFL season broadcasting games from Memorial Stadium.

When Clemson's Chris Gardocki went back to punt against 10th ranked Florida State on September 17, 1988, things looked pretty good for the third-ranked Tigers. In an intense, nationally televised battle, the Tigers were up 14-7 in the third quarter, and the Tiger offense was outgaining the Seminole offense by a three to one margin. Then Deion Sanders entered the picture.

Sanders, lived up to his own billing as one of the game's great punt returners. Catching the Gardocki punt at the FSU 24, Sanders blazed through the middle of the Clemson kick-coverage team and was barely touched for a 76-yard touchdown return, stunning the sell-out crowd. Surely no one has ever covered Frank Howard Field any faster.

Sanders said he predicted the TD to the Clemson players on the sideline before the punt. "I looked over there and said 'This one's going back, baby,'" Sanders recalled. It is still the only punt return for a touchdown against Gardocki, college or pro.

Pat Sullivan led Auburn to many big victories on his way to winning the 1971 Heisman Trophy. One of those was against Clemson on October 10, 1970. Sullivan ran for two touchdowns and passed for another- in the first half- as Auburn exploded against the Tigers. A TD pass from Sullivan to Terry Beasley, his favorite receiver, capped off a 30-0 first half run. Auburn coach Shug Jordan did not play Sullivan in the second half as Auburn beat Clemson, 44-0.

Long before he quarterbacked John Madden's Oakland Raiders to a Super Bowl title, Kenny "The Snake" Stabler led Bear Bryant's powerful Alabama teams of the late 60's. A record crowd of 49,500 crammed Memorial Stadium on October 28, 1967 to see Frank Howard's Tigers try to stop Stabler and the Tide. Except for Stabler, the Tigers probably would have. Stabler threw two long passes to set-up early Alabama scores. Besides that, the Tiger defense dominated, led by players like Ronnie Ducworth and James Tomkins, who had 16 tackles.

Stabler completed 9-15 passes for 135 yards, but was sacked for 50 yards and fumbled once. Although Alabama never crossed mid-field in the second half, Stabler's early passes were enough, giving Alabama a 13-10 victory. "Coach Howard had his team better prepared than mine," Bryant said after the game.

North Carolina linebacker Lawrence Taylor was out-played by Clemson's greatest linebacker ever, Jeff Davis, at Death Valley on November 8, 1980. While Taylor recorded five tackles, Davis registered 24 tackles, the most ever by a Clemson player. But Taylor saved the game for the Tar Heels.

Trailing 24-6 in the fourth quarter, the Tigers roared back with a frantic rally, drawing to within 24-19. Then, with reserve tailback Wilbur Bullard leading the way, the Tigers drove late in the game to the 1-yard line with a first-and-goal opportunity. Two rushes up the middle by the Tigers gained nothing. Then entered Lawrence Taylor. With Clemson fans still smelling victory, Taylor crushed Jordan on a third-down pass attempt, resulting in a 9-yard loss. A fourth-down pass was incomplete, giving the 14th-ranked Tar Heels a 24-19 victory. The Heels have not won at Clemson since.

Taylor, playing for the New York Giants, went on to become the all-time sack leader at linebacker in NFL history.

When examining Charlie Ward's football career at Florida State, many point to the last five minutes at Memorial Stadium in 1992 as the turning point for him in winning the 1993 Heisman Trophy. After throwing four interceptions in his debut the previous week, Ward continued his charitable ways against a fired-up Tiger defense on September 12, 1992. Ward threw interceptions early and often against the Tigers, with Clemson's Norris Brown snaring two and James Trapp returning one for a thrilling 39-yard touchdown.

With four interceptions and one fumble by Ward, the underdog Tigers roared on a Death Valley night, the first night game at Memorial Stadium in 36 years. A Richard Moncrief to Terry Smith TD pass gave Clemson a 20-17 lead late in the game, leaving it up to the Tiger defense to stop FSU for the upset.

Facing defeat, Ward turned from bumbling novice to field general. He quickly led FSU down the field, completing five-of-five passes on a 77-yard drive. With 3:18 left he completed a nine-yard TD pass Kevin Knox to give the Seminoles a 24-20 comeback victory.

For the rest of Ward's career, he continued to display the smooth leadership and pinpoint passing he showed on his last drive at Clemson, enabling him to win the 1993 Heisman Trophy and lead FSU to the 1993 national championship.

Randy White drove opposing coaches crazy as an All-Pro defensive lineman for the Dallas Cowboys' Super Bowl teams of the late 70's. At Memorial Stadium on November 14, 1973, the Maryland lineman did the same to Clemson coach Red Parker. White sacked Tiger quarterback Ken Pengitore three times and recorded seven tackles in leading the Terrapins to a 28-13 win over the Tigers.

How dominating a college player was Virginia Tech's Bruce Smith, now an All-Pro for the Buffalo Bills? At Memorial Stadium on November 10, 1984, Smith recorded nine tackles, including 4 tackles for loss. However, this was a victory for the Tiger offensive line as Smith never sacked Tiger quarterback Mike Eppley in Clemson's 17-10 victory. Clemson lineman Reid Ingle, who did an admirable job blocking Smith that day said, "I wanted to make sure he didn't get any sacks or get to the quarterback from the blind side. He shot through a couple of times, but I think we contained him pretty well."

CLEMSON WOMEN'S TRACK

By Jessica Reo

The 1996-97 Clemson season looks to be excellent for the Lady Tiger track and field team. The experience and depth of the student-athletes, combined with the knowledge and experience of the coaching staff should bring the Lady Tigers to national prominence yet again.

Coach Wayne Coffman returns to lead the Clemson team for his 12th year after a season as the 1996 ACC Indoor Coach-of-the-Year. His assistants, Chad Bell (sprints/hurdles), and David Kaiser (multievents), both enter their fourth year with Clemson, offering consistency and experience to the Clemson track program.

The Lady Tigers have some all-stars in 1996-97 with seven All-ACC performers, two ACC champions, and 10 NCAA performers. The team is stronger than ever and is looking to put the best performances in Lady Tiger history on the board. The only performer of note who has not returned to the Lady Tiger lineup is two-time All-American Treshell Mayo.

Depth-wise, the Lady Tigers are where they want to be as well, signing one of the best classes in the history of the program, and adding to an already deep group of young women. The strength for the Lady Tigers lies in the sprints/hurdles, and the heptathlon events. Clemson has three of the best heptathletes in the country in the program, and brings together an extensive group of exciting and explosive sprinters and hurdlers for 1996-97.

During the indoor and outdoor season combined, the Lady Tigers sent eight women to the national championships and one returned as a two-time All-American. This year looks to be different. "Our goal as a team is to finish in the top-20 nationally," said Coffman. "We have several quality athletes who went to nationals last year and a lot of them are seniors. I'm looking for good things to happen to this team because we are senior-oriented. The field events and the sprint crew will be the strong points of our team and the majority of the athletes that I think will qualify for nationals will be juniors and seniors.

"I feel we should qualify for the national championships in both the 4x400m relay and the 4x100m relay. I think that Nikki Sims, Nikkie Bouyer, and Shenita Wilson all have an excellent chance to be All-Americans. We're very strong in the sprint events, the field events, and the heptathlon.

The Lady Tigers return Tina Jensen as the number-one runner in the cross country and distance category. She has been set back by minor injuries in the past, but is ready to return to the top slot for her senior season with Clemson. She won her first three cross country meets this year.

The Lady Tigers had an outstanding recruiting season, signing Maiken Jensen, Beth Ahern, Shannon Schoppman, Sarah Hayden, Anne Stowell, and Lisa Jacobson from around the east coast. Maiken Jensen has already established herself as a front-runner for the Lady Tigers and is expected to keep up her status among the cross country crew.

Adding to an already strong group with the '96-'97 signees, the Lady Tigers have returned for the season motivated and excited for the new year. Shenita Wilson, Nikkie Bouyer, Kim Norsworthy, Simone Tomlinson, and Samantha Watt all have competed at the NCAA Championships and are looking to establish themselves in the role of All-American.

"In the 200m and the 400m, which is a very strong area for us, we've got Shenita Wilson, Nikkie Bouyer, Kim Norsworthy, Samantha Watt, Shekeera Weston, Simone Tomlinson. We have some top level people in those roles. It was all there last year, but the year of maturity has done them well. The comradery and having a year together, the experience, is going to make them a better crew," says Coffman.

The sprint crew should lead the Lady Tigers in their quest for a top-20 finish nationally having the potential to gain All-America status in different sprint events, hurdle events, and relay events. "Our 4x100m relay team made it to the national championships and ranked 10th in the nation last year. We just missed being an All-American relay team. We still have four of the top five women that we took to the nationals last year.

Hurdles will be another strong suit for the Lady Tigers this year. Nikkie Bouyer returns after setting a Clemson record in the 100m hurdles last year and running in that event at the national championships. Bouyer will have help from returnee Katja Pettinen, who red-shirted last season, Aija Kortesoja, and signee Annika Kumlin.

The Lady Tigers have been slim in the middle distance category in past years, but have been looking for someone to step in and take the reins of the middle distance crew. This season, there should be someone to do just that. The Lady Tigers are counting on Julianne Littman to take over the middle distance races and make them as successful as the short sprints for Clemson. Littman should lead the group in the 800m and 1500m race.

Again, we can talk about consistency, depth, and excellence in this category for the Lady Tigers. Returning is All-ACC high jumper Sharia Clinkscales for her senior season. Add to that the excellence of Trevi Frazier, who improved tremendously during the 1995-96 season in the long and triple jumps and you have strong leadership in all jumps.

ACC champion four-times running, Nikki Sims, returns for her senior season with Clemson as well. Sims, who has travelled to the NCAA Championships four times over the past three years, will add a knowledge and passion for the throws that the Lady Tigers need. Aija Kortesoja was excellent for the Lady Tigers last season in the throws and returns to that role again.

Julie Polovick also adds depth to the throws for the Lady Tigers as well, scoring in the throws last year as a freshman. "We look for a lot more consistency and a lot more out of Julie this year. She developed very well last year as a freshman and threw a lot.

One of the strongest events for the Lady Tigers is the heptathlon. With the return of Katja Pettinen from a red-shirt season and the excellence of All-ACC performer Aija Kortesoja, the Lady Tigers are even stronger. Add to that the recruitment of Annu Montell, who will also challenge in the heptathlon, and you have a combination of excellence, stability, and experience in the multievent category that can spread throughout the team into individual events.

"We have three athletes in this event who have the capability to go to the NCAA championships. For us to get three athletes in one event to the national championships says something. What is good about this group is that they can help us in the secondary events, the throws, the jumps, and the sprints and hurdles. Each one has a specialty, so they can all help the team in different areas," says Coffman.

Shenita Wilson will challenge for All-America certificates for the Clemson women's track team in 1996-97.

TODAY'S BAND PROGRAM

by Emily Rabon

As the air fills once again with the crispness of fall, loyal Tiger fans from everywhere are ready to paint the town orange. Clemson is ready to be filled with the color, pageantry and excitement that becomes commonplace during the fall.

Tiger fans of all ages enjoy the excitement of Homecoming. Alumni come back to be reunited with friends they haven't seen in years and trade stories of days gone by. Fraternities, sororities, and other organizations begin preparations on the magnificent floats and displays that decorate Bowman field. Clemson is one of a dying breed of schools that hold a traditional homecoming.

On Friday night, the "world's largest pep rally," Tigerama" was performed in Memorial Stadium. This year's host was former quarterback and Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame member Mike Eppley and former cheerleader Joey Erwin. Eppley is now a color commentator and Erwin, who owns his own advertising agency in Greenville, is a co-host of the Tiger Tailgate show.

The theme for this year's celebration is "A Rock Solid Tradition for 100 Years". Various organizations and clubs perform skits related to this theme. The excitement of the evening was topped off with a dazzling fireworks display. This morning, alums, fans and students viewed the floats on Bowman Field.

Highlighting the excitement of the day just as they have been for the past 40 years is none other than the "Band that Shakes the Southland", Tiger Band. Pregame festivities begin with one of John Phillip Sousa's most renowned marches "Washington Post". The Clemson University Pershing Rifles Company C4 presents the colors on the field. Everyone stands to honor America in the singing of "God Bless America".

After the invocation, the crowd is asked to remain standing for the Pledge of Allegiance and the National Anthem conducted by Clemson University Director of Bands Dr. Richard Goodstein. Tiger Band then invites everyone to sing the Clemson University Alma Mater.

Tiger Band then marches across the field to form the script "Tigers" across the field. Everyone directs their attention to the 25-yard line where Mr. Mendel Bauknight, the Alumni Association President, dots the "i".

Also during the pre-game activities, the members of Clemson's 1996 College World Series Final Four team will receive their rings. This team was Clemson's first baseball team to finish in the Final Four of the College World Series and brought much acclaim to the school with thrilling wins over Oklahoma State and Alabama last June.

After the rings have been presented, Tiger Band will begin playing the "Song That Shakes The Southland" while marching to the east end zone to form the traditional tunnel. This tunnel serves as entrance for the fighting Tigers to run through. At this point, Clemson fans are just seconds away from witnessing what has been described as "the most exciting 25 seconds in college football from a color and pageantry standpoint."

At the designated moment, the cannon fires and the frenzy of excitement begins. The players "Rub Howard's Rock" hoping to gain some of its magical powers. No player will ever forget the excitement that this generates.

The band makes its second appearance of the game during halftime. Today's halftime program is entitled "Celebration" an honor of the Homecoming festivities. Featured will be several chart topping hits including Kool & The Gang's "Celebration", Three Dog Night's "Celebrate", and Al Jarreau's "Boogie Down". Today, at the conclusion of the halftime show, Tiger Band will be joined by over 150 former members from across the country who have returned to Death Valley to perform in the Alumni Band and play "Tiger Rag" one more time.

During the game this afternoon, we honor Drum Majors Lawanda Curry, Tracy Dean, Landon Hammett and Susan Lark. The Tiger Band Drum Majors act as field conductors during performances and field assistants to the director during rehearsals. Their responsibilities include taking attendance, correcting individual errors and style problems, and assisting with the efficient teaching of marching drills to the band.

Curry is in her fourth year as a Drum Major, and her sixth year as a Tiger Band member. She is a native of Loganville, Georgia and is a graduate of Hart County High School. Curry is a senior majoring in Parks, Recreation and Tourism Management.

Dean is in her third year as a Tiger Band Drum Major, and her fourth year as a Tiger Band member. She is a native of Loganville, Georgia and a graduate of South Gwinnett High School. Dean is a senior majoring in Biological Sciences.

In his first year as Drum Major is Landon Hammett. A third-year band member, Hammett is a native of Chesnee, South Carolina and is a graduate of Bolling Springs High School. Landon is a junior majoring in engineering.

A native of Townville, South Carolina, Lark is in her second year as a Drum Major and her third year as a member of Tiger Band. She is a graduate of Pendleton High School and a junior majoring in Nursing.

Tiger Band would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to these members for the extra time and effort they put forth. Without their outstanding leadership skills, performances and practices would be much more difficult.

And, before we close the book on today's Homecoming, we want to remind you that Tiger Band's annual "Pass-In-Review" Concert will be held Thursday, November 21, at 8:00pm in the Brooks Center. Everyone is invited to attend.

Clemson Drum Majors Tracy Dean, Susan Lark, Landon Hammett and Lawanda Curry.

THE LAST WORD

by Bob Bradley

Jerry Butler and Steve Fuller came to Clemson with few characteristics in common. Actually, Butler was in school on a track scholarship, while Fuller was one of the most highly recruited football players ever to come out of the state of South Carolina.

Butler came from the state's smallest athletic program (1-A classification) at Ware Shoals and Fuller's 4-A Spartanburg High Vikings was the highest classification. Butler's coach was Joe Burgess, who is now the head man at Liberty High School, and Fuller's mentor was Bill Carr, who is now mayor of Easley. Spartanburg High was state runner-up to Spring Valley of Columbia in 1973, Fuller's junior year.

While their backgrounds were different—kinda wanted vs. unwanted situation—Fuller and Butler had one thing in common—they were both athletes. One could throw the football and the other could catch it.

No doubt the most famous completion in Clemson football history is Butler's winning catch, which Fuller threw, against South Carolina in 1977, when both were juniors. The Tigers had led at one time, 24-0, but the Gamecocks had rallied to go ahead, 27-24. A six-play, 67-yard drive by Clemson which took 59 seconds ended with that spectacular 20-yard completion that left 56,410 limp.

In the second game that season when Clemson had edged past Georgia 7-6 in Athens, Tiger head coach Charlie Pell had started a ritual when Clemson won—passing out cigars to players in the dressing room afterwards.

That night in Columbia, after Phillip Logan had scored on a 40-yard pass play from Ron Bass to give the Gamecocks their three-point lead, several of the South Carolina players pulled up their game jersey to reveal another shirt that was imprinted with "No Cigars Tonight" on it.

Little did they know that one of the many Fuller-to-Butler passes was just a few minutes away, which would turn their zenith of happiness into the darkest of dreams.

But this pair would leave memories in the minds of Clemson fans that would be difficult to erase—maybe by even national championships. Some of their records are still No. 1 today, even after two decades of Saturday encounters.

Their last three years, the duo had completions of over 50 yards three different times. Butler caught at least one pass in 35 consecutive games, had five games with over 100 yards in receptions and finish with school records in career receptions (139) and career reception yardage (2,223).

Fuller would also have a pocketful of records. He had over 100 yards passing in 21 games. His 1,655 yards passing in 1977 is still a school mark, as are his total offense (2,164) in 1978 and his is the career total offense yardage leader with 6,096 yards.

The Fuller-Butler connection would be successful for 10 touchdowns during the pair's parallel careers at Clemson, three in their sophomore season of 1976. But then the corner turned in '77 and the Tigers would go to their first post-season game in 18 years when the Gator Bowl beckoned.

Butler's longest reception from Fuller came against Maryland at College Park in '78 in a game many still say is the best ACC game ever. The league championship was on the line and there were 7, 14 and 21-all ties before the Tigers came out a 28-24 winner. Clemson's first three scores knotted the game each time, and the one that tied the game at 14 was an 87-yard strike.

Butler caught the only touchdown in a 7-3 win over N.C. State in '77, in addition to his winning catch against the Gamecocks.

But the game where Fuller and Butler would hardly let anyone else play with the ball was against Georgia Tech in Atlanta in '77. It was a landmark performance that day, one because Clemson rarely won in Atlanta, and two, it was the greatest yardage passing combination in Clemson history for one game. And, it still is.

Fuller ran the ball 13 times and had a net gain of just 13 yards. But two of the rushes were for scores. He only passed nine times, and completed five (163 yards), but Butler was on the receiving end of all five catches.

Those 163 yards receiving are the most ever by a Clemson player in a game. In that memorable Maryland game, Fuller threw for 216 yards on just eight completions, and Butler had five of those for 140 yards—11th best in Clemson history.

In the 1977 Yellow Jacket contest, won 31-14 by the Tigers, an opening drive taking five minutes off the clock resulted in a 37-yard field goal from Jimmy Russell.

After the Jackets had gained a first down on a penalty, Roy Eppes recovered a Tech fumble at the Clemson 34, and on the first play, Fuller connected on a 66-yard scoring pass to Butler for a 10-0 lead with just over eight minutes elapsed in the game.

Fuller scored his two touchdowns in the second quarter. In the second drive that carried for 82 yards, Butler caught three passes for 11, 20, and 20 yards as Clemson took a 24-7 lead into the dressing room at intermission.

Tech closed the gap to 10 with a touchdown midway through the third period, but Brian Kier gave the Tigers life on the second play of the fourth quarter with an interception. It took just 22 seconds for Clemson to go 66 yards.

Fuller looked for whom else—J.B.—and here their fifth success on the afternoon went for 46 yards to the Jacket 20. With Georgia Tech still reeling from the interception and the long pass play, Fuller called on Lester Brown and the 'Rubber Duck' rambled across the alumni from 20 yards out.

Although over 14 minutes remained in the game following Brown's tally, neither team generated much offense the rest of the way. Only six more first downs were made by both teams combined. And Clemson laid claim to only its seventh team victory against Tech in Atlanta since 1902.

Steve Fuller and Jerry Butler helped start Clemson back to national prominence with that performance in 1977. In the next 19 years, the Tigers would play in 13 bowls and claim a national championship in 1981.

Fuller, now a successful businessman at Hilton Head Island, and Butler, a member of the front office staff of the Buffalo Bills, were both first-round draft choices out of college.

Most Clemson fans believe this pair is still No. 1. The seed planted by them in 1975—their freshman year—continues to produce a harvest.

Fuller to Butler might be the greatest passing combination in Clemson history. They were at their best in a victory over Georgia Tech in 1977.

PARTNERS IN SUCCESS

At Yeargin, we believe that true construction excellence is exemplified in the pride, creativity and initiative of our people. We pursued these same attributes when teaming with American Buildings Company in the selection of a pre-engineered metal building system for one of our recent clients, General Wholesale Distributors of Greenville, S.C.

The result is an attractive and functional 86,000 sq. ft. state-of-the-art office/distribution center completed on time, within budget and with great attention to detail.

Let our knowledge, flexibility and expertise bring your company's vision to reality. Consider the Yeargin/American Buildings Team for all your pre-engineered metal building needs. Experience, dedication, and technical expertise result in superior construction services.

We look forward to serving your construction needs.
